Jennifer Bolande Jennifer Bolande, 2012 Jennifer Bolande Jennifer Bolande, 2011 For the past 25 years Jennifer Bolande born 1957 has engaged in an intuitive form of conceptualism using a variety of media including photography sculpture photo objects collage film installation and dance to record or create visual anomalies Photographer Sharon Lockhart describes her works as photographic sculptures and sculptural photographs terms that are readily applied to Bolande's best known work Milk Crown a porcelain reproduction of Harold Edgerton's famous 1956 photo of a milk splash Landmarks is the first monograph on her work Sequenced and co designed by the artist it carries the viewer into and through the sets of elements themes and narratives that recur and dovetail throughout her work In addition to images of her most significant works the catalogue includes a wealth of resource material providing a view of the artist's process and fields of interest

Maintenance Architecture Hilary Sample, 2016-12-09 An inventive examination of a crucial but neglected aspect of architecture by an architect writing to architects Maintenance plays a crucial role in the production and endurance of architecture yet architects for the most part treat maintenance with indifference The discipline of architecture values the image of the new over the lived in the photogenic empty and stark building over a messy and labored one But the fact is homes need to be cleaned and buildings and cities need to be maintained and architecture no matter its form cannot escape from such realities In Maintenance Architecture Hilary Sample offers an inventive examination of the architectural significance of maintenance through a series of short texts and images about specific buildings materials and projects Although architects have seldom choose to represent maintenance imagining their work only from conception to realization artists have long explored subjects of endurance and permanence in iconic architecture Sample explores a range of art projects by artists including Gordon Matta Clark Jeff Wall and Mierle Laderman Ukeles to recast the problem of maintenance for architecture How might architectural design and discourse change as a building cycle expands to include post occupancy Sample looks particularly at the private home exhibition pavilion and high rise urban building giving special attention to buildings constructed with novel and developing materials technologies and precise detailing in relation to endurance These include Buckminster Fuller's Dymaxion House 1929 the Lever House 1952 the U S Steel Building 1971 and the O 14 2010 She considers the iconography of skyscrapers maintenance workforces both public and private labor saving technology and devices and contemporary architectural projects and preservation techniques that encompass the afterlife of buildings A selection of artworks make the usually invisible aspects of maintenance visible from Martha Rosler's Cleaning the Drapes to Inigo Manglano Ovalle's The Kiss

Artforum International, 2003 New York Magazine, 1982-03-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Up & Coming Michael Steinberg, 2001 Survey becomes the polemic of the moment and this book should be a survey rather than a definition of the scene Each section presents an overview with a close look at selected highlights within each area New York Magazine, 1982-03-29 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Motives Edit DeAk, 1984 Deep Storage Geoffrey Batchen, Hubertus Gassner, 1998 Everybody collects something sometime Many artists have discovered collecting and saving as a means of artistic expression and have made the storage of objects and information the subject of their work This ranges from digital memory to rows and stacks of materials to shelves packaging crates installations and entire areas filled with diverse objects stored systematically or in states of utter chaos
