that I have already attained or am already perfected but I press on that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me Brethren I do not count myself to have apprehended but one thing I do forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus Philippians 3 12 14 NKJV Dr Jeremiah draws on this key verse to show that while it is good at times to look back we need to make sure that we don't go back and allow the past to dictate our future We need to celebrate our good memories but also celebrate our bad memories with finality thanking God for the lessons that He has taught us through the experience and committing to use those lessons to make positive changes in our lives We then need to allow our past memories to cultivate our dreams boldly stepping into the mission God has for us and allowing Him to continually transform us to be more like Christ Now is the time to step past our comfort and our failure Now is the time to move forward in following God Designed for use with the Forward Video Study available on DVD or streaming video sold separately surprising that Jesus would call a man like Matthew to become one of His disciples. As a small time tax collector, Matthew would have been despised by the Jewish people who viewed those in the profession as traitors to Rome. But the fact that Matthew was educated, literate, and also familiar with Jewish law and customs made him the ideal candidate to not only accompany Jesus during His earthly ministry but also record all that he witnessed. The result is the Gospel we have today. Matthew shows how Jesus, as the promised Messiah and eternal King, is worthy of our hope and our complete devotion. Philippians Dr. David Jeremiah, 2020-08-18 Experience joy in any situation. Follow Dr. Jeremiah through the letter of Philippians in a chapter by chapter study that will help you understand what it meant to the people at the time it was written and what it means to Christians today. The believers in Philippi were experiencing both concern for Paul while he was in prison and spiritual discouragement. Paul wrote this loving letter to encourage them in their faith and to remind them that there was a greater future in store for him and for them outside this world. Paul even admits the tension he feels between living to continue sharing the gospel and dying so he can be with Christ. This mindset allowed Paul to remain joyful in the midst of suffering, and he knew the same would be true of the Philippi believers as well. Each of this study's twelve lessons is clearly organized to include: Getting Started (An opening question to introduce you to the lesson), Setting the Stage (A short reflection to explain the context of the study), Exploring the Text (The Scripture reading for the lesson with related study questions), Reviewing the Story (Questions to help you identify key points in the reading), Applying the Message (Questions to help you apply the key ideas to their lives), Reflecting on the Meaning (A closing reflection on the key teachings in the lesson).
