Jess T Dugan Every Breath We Drew:

Every Breath We Drew David Travis, Schneider Gallery, JDC Fine Art, 2012 Every Breath We Drew, 2015 Every Breath We Drew examines the intersection between private individual identity and the search for intimate connection with others

Becoming a Visible Man Jamison Green, 2020-09-15 At least two generations of transgender nonbinary and gender nonconforming people have emerged since Becoming a Visible Man was first published in 2004 but the book remains a beloved resource for trans people and their allies Since the first edition's publication author Jamison Green's writings and advocacy among business and governmental organizations around the world have led to major changes in the fields of law medicine and social policy and his mostly invisible work has had significant effects on trans people globally This new edition captures the changes of the last two decades while also imparting a message of self acceptance and health With profoundly personal and eminently practical threads Green clarifies transgender experience for transgender people and their families friends and coworkers Medical and mental health care providers educators business leaders and advocates seeking information about transgender concerns can all gain from Green's integrative approach to the topic This book candidly addresses emotional relationships that are affected by a transition and brings refined integrity to the struggle to self define whether one undergoes a transition or chooses not to Emphasizing the lives of transgender men who are often overlooked he elucidates the experience of masculinity in a way that is self assured and inclusive of feminist values Green's inspirational wisdom has informed and empowered thousands of readers There is still no other book like Becoming a Visible Man in the transgender canon Kinship Dorothy Moss, Leslie Ureña, 2022-11-11 Recent events have pushed artists to visualize ideas of closeness in a new light Kinship published on the occasion of the National Portrait Gallery's next Portraiture Now exhibition features the work of eight leading contemporary artists who explore familial relationships through photography painting sculpture and performance

Women Photograph: What We See Daniella Zalcman, Sara Ickow, 2023-03-08 Open your eyes to a new world view with 100 women and nonbinary photojournalists' stories from behind the lens 85% of photojournalists are men That means almost everything that is reported in the world is seen through men's eyes Similarly spaces and communities men don't have access to are left undocumented and forgotten With the camera limited to the hands of one gender photographic truth is more subjective than it seems To answer this serious ethical problem Women Photograph flips that bias on its head to show what and how women and nonbinary photojournalists see From documenting major events such as 9/11 to capturing unseen and misrepresented communities this book presents a revisionist contemporary history pore over 50 years of women's dispatches in 100 photographs Each image is accompanied by 200 words from the photographer about the experience and the subject offering fresh insights and a much needed perspective Until we have balanced representative reporting the camera cannot offer a mirror to our global society To get the full picture we need a diverse range of people behind the lens This book offers a first step Relearn how to see with this evergreen catalogue that elevates the voices of women and nonbinary visual storytellers
