offers The Gospel of John A Commentary more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship Bruner honors and draws from the church s major John commentators throughout history including Augustine Chrysostom Aquinas Luther Calvin Bultmann Barrett and many more Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner s own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience Like Bruner s other work this commentary is rich in biblical insights broadly historical and deeply theological Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner s earlier work on Matthew This is the kind of commentary I most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike The Renewed Mind Larry Christenson,2000-12 Have you ever tried to break a bad habit By sheer willpower you set your mind to overcome it but suddenly there it is again Do you ever have thoughts rise up in your mind that would make you blush if they were suddenly broadcast over a loudspeaker The Home and Foreign Record of the Free Church of Scotland Free Church of Scotland,1854 My Baptism, and what Led to it James Mountain,1904
