questions are considered by scholars from various traditions what would Christian unity look like and what is the best method for seeking it This is a remarkably comprehensive account and assessment of one of the most outstanding features of Christian history namely the modern ecumenical movement

The Ecumenical Movement & the Making of the European Community Lucian Leustean, 2014-07-31 The European Community has largely been considered a predominantly secular project bringing together the economic and political realms while failing to mobilise the public voice and imagination of churchmen and the faithful Drawing on a wide range of archival sources this is the first study to assess the political history of religious dialogue in the European Community It challenges the widespread perception that churches started to engage with European institutions only after the 1979 elections to the European Parliament by detailing close relations between churchmen and high ranking officials in European institutions immediately after the 1950 Schuman Declaration Lucian N Leustean demonstrates that Cold War divisions between East and West and the very nature of the ecumenical movement had a direct impact on the ways in which churches approached the European Community He brings to light events and issues which have not previously been examined such as the response of churches to the Schuman Plan and the political mobilisation of church representations in Brussels Strasbourg and Luxembourg Leustean argues that the concept of a united Europe has been impeded by competing national differences between religious and political institutions having a long standing legacy on the making of a fragmented European Community

Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, 1961 A History of the Ecumenical Movement Ruth Rouse, Stephen Neill, Harold Edward Fey, 1986 Visser 't Hooft, 1900-1985 Jurjen Zeilstra, 2025-10-01 God's diplomat the pope of the ecumenical movement but also an acerbic theologian and a difficult person this is how journalists characterised Willem Adolf Visser 't Hooft 1900-1985 He was one of the best known Dutch theologians outside the Netherlands and he left his mark on the world church Even at an early age he made profound efforts in support of international ecumenical youth and student organisations Dutch Student Christian Movement YMCA and World Student Christian Federation He led the World Council of Churches during its formative stages from 1938 and after its formal establishment in 1948 became its first general secretary serving until 1966 To Visser 't Hooft the unity of the church was both an article of faith and a pragmatic organisation of church influence in a disunited world

Toward a Common Future William G. Rusch, 2019-05-20 This book provides a specific proposal for churches divided by centuries long disputes and disagreements to move toward a vision of the unity of the church It seeks to offer a way for divided churches to move beyond the present quagmire that challenges much of the modern ecumenical movement Building upon the theological dialogues between the churches this volume identifies and supplies a way for churches to regain a momentum that seems recently to have been lost in the ecumenical movement

The Church in the Modern Age Gabriel Adriányi, 1981 Christ Is a Native American Achiel Peelman, 2006-03-14 During his 1984 visit to Canada Pope John Paul II declared Christ in the members of his body is himself Indian Who is this native Christ What is his place in the spiritual universe of native people Achiel Peelman examines these questions in this timely and groundbreaking book which is the result of research he has carried out since 1982 in native communities across Canada While Peelman s book is a work of theology and Christology it is also a work of profound friendship that will help its readers know more deeply the Amerindian experience
