Hill, 2014-02-25 Christology that is the study of Jesus is a many faceted subject In this new edition of Jesus the Christ Brennan Hill clearly and cogently explores this critical theological area resulting in a luminous and reliable portrait of the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith He deftly surveys both the breadth of information covered in the previous edition as well as the wealth of developments that have occurred in the field since the early 1990s Jesus the Christ looks at the people and places in Jesus time then moves to a search for the historical Jesus Hill next looks at the many areas of Jesus life and mission teacher prophet miracle worker man of the earth advocate for women savior and liberator He examines the main gospel stories about Jesus birth death and resurrection and illustrates how the early christological doctrines developed This new edition is written in a more informal and accessible style enabling students to well understand and grasp the concepts and facts about the subject Each chapter ends with discussion questions and a list of suggestions for further reading Jesus the Christ is eminently readable constantly challenging and filled with timely information in nontechnical language It is strongly rooted in the best of modern biblical translation and will be welcomed by students teachers and the general reader alike The New Evangelization, 2015-02-26 The Second Vatican Council endorsed an engagement with the modern and secularized world through a renewed proclamation of the Gospel John Paul II described this as the New Evangelization and in 2010 Benedict XVI confirmed this priority by creating the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization to re propose the perennial truth of the Gospel The New Evangelization was the subject of the Synod of Bishops in 2012 and in 2014 Pope Francis gave his reflections on the topic in Evangelii Gaudium The New Evangelization draws on material presented and discussed at the conference Vatican II 50 Years On The New Evangelization organised by Leeds Trinity University on 26 29th June 2012 Part I traces the historical and theological links between the Council and the New Evangelization Part II examines the renewed understanding of the Church as a result of the Council and the extent to which it is shaped by civilization Part III analyzes the nature of the New Evangelization and its outworking in today s multifarious context of cultures religions and societies Part IV deals with the implementation of the New Evangelization by different communities and organizations and the issues this raises In the Introduction and Conclusion the editors reflect on the New Evangelization in the light of significant developments since 2012 The Communicant's Spiritual Companion ... Christology of 1 Corinthians 8:6 Emad Atef Ezzat Hanna,2023-07-27 This thesis aims to investigate the Christology presented in 1 Cor 8 6 as it is one of the most important christological texts in the New Testament and to do this against the backdrop of the modern scholarly discussion about New Testament Christology The present thesis argues that divine Christology in this text is the essential component for our understanding of the Pauline Christology and the earliest Christology of early Christians British Librarian, Or Book-collectors Guide to the Formation of a Library in All Branches of Literature (etc.) William Thomas Lowndes,1842 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1850 The history of philosophy from Thales to Comte George Henry Lewes,1880 Tales and Sketches Hugh Miller,1863 Catalogue of theological books in the library of Hartwell house, Buckinghamshire Hartwell house,1855 The Talba, or Moor of Portugal Anna Eliza Bray,1884 Salvation in New England Phyllis M. Jones,Nicholas R. Jones,2011-10-26 The sermon as crafted by the early New England preachers was the most prominent literary form of its day yet the earliest Puritan texts have as a rule been available only in rare book collections This anthology of sermons of the first generation of preachers fills a serious gap in American literature The preachers collected here the most widely published of their time were among the eighty or more who emigrated to Massachusetts Bay during the 1630s They are John Cotton of Boston Thomas Shepard of Cambridge and Thomas Hooker of Hartford the three foremost lights of the western churches and two eminent colleagues Peter Bulkeley of Concord and John Davenport first of New Haven and later of Boston The selections are chosen to be representative of the lengthy works from which they are drawn to reflect the major concerns and styles of the preachers work as a whole and to demonstrate the genre of the sermon as developed by the early American Puritans Not only does this anthology represent an important contribution to literary history but the sermons also illustrate a doctrine uniquely elaborated in this period a consistent and emphatic narrative mythlike in its repetition and heroics of the progress of the soul from a state of nature to a state of salvation This theme may be seen as a three stage development although individual sermons may vary These stages preparation vocation and regeneration determine the order of the selections The editors introductory material supplies a comprehensive and thorough discussion of the early New England sermons concentrating on their role history structure style and subject matter A separate essay on the texts of the sermons describes the relationship between the early printed versions and their form as delivered in the pulpit The introduction preceding each selection presents original research on the historical circumstances of the preaching and publication of the work from which the sermon is drawn The editors have also provided brief biographies of the preachers represented here an annotated list of recommended background reading and the most exhaustive checklist available of authoritative editions of the sermons of these five preachers This book will be useful to colonial specialists as well as to students of early American literature religion and history The texts are critically edited for readability with modernized spelling and annotations of unfamiliar phrases and allusions American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1865 Pinnock's Improved Edition of Dr.
