Jesus and Time Ma'afu Palu, 2012-05-03 This study examines Jesus' conception of time focusing on the proclamation in Mark 1:15 Time is fulfilled and the Kingdom is near Pain Killer Constance Roslinda Gary, 2016-07-15 We have all walked through valleys of depression and despair We hurt inside and out from past pains Many of us take to all types of pain killers Yet the pain is still there Pain Prayer Praise Addiction versus Anointing Stress Salvation Trauma Testimony Gospel Singer's Wordbook Linda Renstrom Beddoe, 1984-01-01 From the Foreword This book of gospel music is a collection of lyrics and chords representing the familiar praises of Jesus Christ The chords noted above the lyrics will aid in the accompaniment of the songs The starting note indicates the first note of the melody The main purpose of this book is to give the gospel singer a place to find his favorite songs and all the verses he may wish to sing Some of these familiar songs date back to the early Christian Church while others are contemporary One will find here the longstanding hymns of the Church revival songs and choruses Negro spirituals and children's songs I have truly enjoyed putting this collection together for you I hope you will find this book both a blessing and an inspiration to your spiritual life God bless you Preaching Mark's Gospel Richard A. Jensen, 1996 In a classic case of failing to see the forest for the trees Jensen a homiletics professor and author of two works on narrative preaching says that preachers tend to analyze biblical books to glean the slightest bits of exegetical data yet miss the thrust of the overarching story they try to convey Jensen contends that preachers get too caught up in an analytical left-brained mentality that obscures the power and meaning of the good news story In these pages Jensen helps us approach Mark's gospel with eyes wide open rather than with microscope in hand He treats Mark's gospel as a narrative whole and challenges preachers to tell the gospel's story to their congregations In doing so Jensen emphasizes the strength of biblical stories He says that these stories are powerful in and of themselves and that they work without much explanatory help The problem is that listeners never hear the entire story because it's always told to them in bits and pieces Jensen's adaptation of what Robert Alter author of The Art of Biblical Narrative calls narrative analogy assumes that parallel acts or situations are used to comment on each other in biblical narrative In other words if Mark told story B to flesh out the reality of story A then perhaps preachers today can do the same thing in their preaching Students of Jensen have enthusiastically embraced this approach This is great we never get to hear them stories whole How did it ever occur to us that we could improve on the story of the Prodigal Son for example by reducing it to ideas Richard A Jensen teaches homiletics at Wartburg Seminary in Dubuque Iowa and Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago He is best known for his ten year stint as preacher for the national radio program Lutheran Vespers He has also produced a television series titled Reflections and one titled Rhapsody Words from God: Rising Out of the Ashes LaJuana Craft Ryckley, 2020-02-10 This book is a compilation of my life arising from my deepest memories and heart-felt moments through the experiences I have lived This book is in poetry all my loves struggles as a mother and wife to just enjoying all the things that God has given me to see and feel I have made lemonade with my life and I wanted to share with others all the ups and downs that have gone into making me what I have become today I have grown very close to my Heavenly Father through each step I hope it is an inspiration to all who read the words of my life Victory Konnee, 2015-09-04 A trail of trials through abandonment abuse addiction anger betrayal conflict criticism cruelty death disease disenfranchisement etc The SON shines in our darkest moments Victory is eternal Learning from the Past Jon Balserak, Richard Snoddy, 2015-08-27 This collection of essays in honour of Anthony N S Lane has two main foci picking up themes which resonate with some of Lane's most important work The first broad theme is the reception of the thought of earlier generations of biblical interpreters and theologians The essays here explore various facets of reception history textual transmission the identification of editions used the deployment of these sources in doctrinal formulation in polemic and in relation to the contested site of catholicity The second broad theme is engagement with other confessional identities and allegiances The essays presented here shed light on the past and stimulate contemporary theological reflection The Humility and Glory of the Lamb Jeffrey R. Dickson, 2018-09-13

Although the Apostle John endorses Lamb twenty nine times in his Apocalypse and employs a term that is used only one other time in the New Testament to this end this unique title and its sophisticated christological implications has only received cursory attention both historically and more recently Even then incomplete monochromatic interpretations of the unique verbiage John employs to describe Christ are reached After identifying this clearing that exists in the christological forest this book reaches a robust understanding of Revelation s Lamb by means of a contextual grammatical canonical historical hermeneutic Ultimately this monograph concludes that the apostle s use of Lamb throughout his Apocalypse promotes a multifaceted christological presentation of John s protagonist that is dependent on the paradoxical theme of glory in humility a theme that is introduced when the Lamb first emerges in Revelation 5 and is then reiterated every time the title is used thereafter In so doing this work offers students and scholars alike a better understanding of who is coming in the end and what this means for the church at present Flames of Life Konnee, 2015-08-04

A poetic prayer journey through divorce devastation emotional upheavals financial droughts horrific homelessness and mental breakdown to spiritual breakthrough

Richards,James A. Little,1914 The Integrating Gospel and The Christian: Alan Tippett,2015-06-01 Alan Tippett s publications played a significant role in the development of missiology The volumes in this series augment his distinguished reputation by bringing to light his many unpublished materials and hard to locate printed articles These books encompassing theology anthropology history area studies religion and ethnohistory broaden the contours of the discipline This volume contains two manuscripts The first The Integrating Gospel combines a historical ethnolinguistic study of Fijian language an examination of Fijian culture patterns in interaction with the church and Tippett s own firsthand experience as a communicator of the gospel to specific receptors at a specific place and point in time From this Tippett is able to extrapolate broader ideas on contextualization and methods of gospel transmission In The Christian Fiji 1835 67 Tippett addresses the establishment of the Christian church and the spread of Christianity in Fiji with special attention to Ratu Cakobau In this brief but in depth study Tippett presents a strong case against the understanding that Fijian conversions to Christianity were primarily political as he offers evidence of the genuine religious and spiritual experiences behind these conversions

Receptivity Francis Kelly Nemeck,2002-07-09 According to its author Francis Kelly Nemeck Receptivity is a study of what it means to be receptive to God as found in the writings of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin and St John of the Cross The book deals with the problem of evil particularly the aspects of suffering and death Given the universal facts of suffering and death the author stresses their positive and constructive contribution to the spiritual growth of the human person Although this study may appear scholarly it is nonetheless steeped in the life experiences of St John Teilhard and the author himself John of the Cross 1542 1591 was born into dire poverty He lost his father and a brother at an early age As a youth John worked his way through school and when the plague hit Spain he served as an orderly in a local charity hospital At the age of thirty five he was kidnapped tortured and thrown into a dungeon by a faction within the Carmelite order that he was trying to reform Emaciated by dysentery John managed to escape after nine months of solitary confinement He died thirteen years later after a long bout with osteomyelitis and gangrene Teilhard 1881 1955 also knew intense pain most of it emotional As a youth he survived several tragic deaths in his family During World War I he was a stretcher bearer on the front lines He lost two more brothers and many close friends in the war During his early forties Teilhard was relieved of his teaching post in Paris and forced into exile because of accusations of unorthodoxy and heresy made by factions within the ecclesiastical hierarchy
