Jiri Menzel And The History Of The Closely Watched Train:

Jiří Menzel and the History of the Closely Watched Trains Josef Škvorecký, 1982 A work on contemporary Czechoslovak cinematography focusing on the celebrated director Jiri Menzel's classic film Closely Watched Train in the context of communist Czechoslovak mores and restrictions A Short History of the Movies Gerald Mast, Bruce F. Kavin, 2003 B The seventh edition of A Short History of the Movies continues the tradition that has made it one of the most popular books ever in film history This volume offers students a panoramic overview of the worldwide development of film from the early Mack Sennett and Charlie Chaplin shorts through the studio heyday of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hollywood Renaissance of the 1960s and 1970s to the pictures and their technology appearing in the multiplexes of today This new edition which has been revised and rewritten to reflect current scholarship and recent industry developments and new films and filmmakers represents an accurate scrupulous updating of a classic Features an emphasis on key historical and aesthetic principles provides solid scholarship in an accessible intelligent and readable format Includes almost 500 color and black and white photographs including frame enlargements and production stills Includes evaluations of great works from such directors as Griffith Ford Scorsese and Hitchcock illuminates conflicts and controversies in many areas of filmmaking Also features extensive treatment of international film enables comparison and contrast between American films and those of other countries particularly Germany Russia France Italy and China For anyone interested in the history of film The Legacy of World War II in European Arthouse Cinema Sam Deighan, 2021-06-08 World War II irrevocably shaped culture and much of cinema in the 20th century thanks to its devastating global impact that changed the way we think about and portray war This book focuses on European war films made about the war between 1945 and 1985 in countries that were occupied or invaded by the Nazis such as Poland France Italy the Soviet Union and Germany itself Many of these films were banned censored or sharply criticized at the time of their release for the radical ways they reframed the war and rejected the mythologizing of war experience as a heroic battle between the forces of good and evil The particular films examined made by arthouse directors like Pier Paolo Pasolini Rainer Werner Fassbinder and Larisa Shepitko among many more deviate from mainstream cinematic depictions of the war and instead present viewpoints and experiences of WWII which are often controversial or transgressive They explore the often complicated ways that participation in war and genocide shapes national identity and the ways that we think about bodies and sexuality trauma violence power justice and personal responsibility themes that continue to resonate throughout culture and global politics Postcards from Absurdistan Derek Sayer, 2022-11-22 A sweeping history of a twentieth century Prague torn between fascism communism and democracy with lessons for a world again threatened by dictatorship Postcards from Absurdistan is a cultural and political history of Prague from 1938 when the Nazis destroyed Czechoslovakia's artistically vibrant liberal democracy to 1989 when the country's socialist regime collapsed after more than four decades of communist dictatorship Derek Sayer shows that Prague's twentieth century far from being a story of inexorable progress toward some end of history whether fascist communist or democratic was a tragicomedy of recurring nightmares played out in a land Czech dissidents dubbed Absurdistan Situated in the eye of the storms that shaped the modern world Prague holds up an unsettling mirror to the absurdities and dangers of our own times In a brilliant narrative Sayer weaves a vivid montage of the lives of individual Praguers poets and politicians architects and athletes journalists and filmmakers artists musicians and comedians caught up in the crosscurrents of the turbulent half century following the Nazi invasion This is the territory of the ideologist the collaborator the informer the apparatchik the dissident the outsider the torturer and the refugee not to mention the innocent bystander who is always looking the other way and Vclav Havel's greengrocer whose knowing complicity allows the show to go on Over and over Prague exposes modernity's dreamworlds of progress as confections of kitsch In a time when democracy is once again under global assault Postcards from Absurdistan is an unforgettable portrait of a city that illuminates the predicaments of the modern world
