Joel Annie F. Johnston,2015-07-24 Joseph the carpenter Last week he was bidden to a marriage in Cana It happened before the feasting was over the supply of wine was exhausted and the mortified host knew not what to do Six great jars of stone had been placed in the room to supply the guests with water for washing He changed that water into wine I cannot believe it answered Abigail simply But Ezra ben Jared told me so He was there and drank of the wine insisted Phineas He could not have done it said Abigail unless he were helped by the evil one or unless he were a prophet He is too good a man to ask help of the powers of darkness and it is beyond belief that a son of Joseph should be a prophet To this Phineas made no answer His quiet thoughts were shaken out of their usual routine as violently as if by an earthquake dark water thinking how easy it would be to slip down into it and forget but Rabbi Phineas that face will not let me that face of your friend I keep seeing it all the time It seemed like a market place for cages of doves were kept there for sale and 143 lambs calves and oxen bleated and lowed in their stalls till Joel could scarcely hear what his friend was saying as they pushed their way through the crowd and stood before the Gate Beautiful that led into the Court of the Women Joel Annie Fellows Johnston,2014-03 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book Joel: A Boy of Galilee Annie F.
