Fehler, Jared B. Thomley, 2023-07-25 For nearly two millennia Christians have tried to make sense of the Bible's reminder that the poor are always among us This volume explores the diverse range of ideas institutions and experiences early modern Europeans brought to bear in response to this biblical adage Do good unto all traces the concept and practice of charity across the four major early modern Christian confessions Catholic Lutheran

Calvinist and Anabaptist and over a wide range of geographical areas from Scotland to Switzerland and the Spanish Atlantic World By bringing such a diverse set of localised studies into concert for the first time this volume exposes the many intersections and tensions that arose between and within communities as they attempted to translate the ideal of charity into practice This comparative approach shifts the focus from binary definitions of deserving and undeserving poor or Catholic and Protestant Instead Do good unto all charts a new course for the study of charity beyond institutional poor relief where the matrix of individual ideas and experiences can be fully appreciated Book of Harmony Martin J. Lohrmann, 2016-09-07 The Reformation era writings that make up the Lutheran Confessions remain lively resources for Christian ministry and mission today Because each of the documents within the Book of Concord was written with a specific context and rhetorical purpose in mind each has its own compelling story and objectives Luther's catechisms present the faith for daily life at the grass roots level with teaching elements that we might now view as typical of social media and multimedia The Augsburg Confession and its Apology provide an adaptable foundation for preaching teaching church organization and dialogue that is rooted in the promise of Christ received through faith Fifteen years after the Diet of Worms the Smalcald Articles reveal yet another Here I stand moment for Luther Finally the Formula of Concord shows how the next generations of Lutherans used collaboration and consensus as they wrestled with important themes of faith and life In summary as these texts engage us with their stories they invite us to consider what is most important about our journeys of faith and Christian witness in today's twenty first century contexts Luther the Reformer James M. Kittelson, 2016-10-01 For nearly thirty years James M. Kittelson's Luther the Reformer has been the standard biography of Martin Luther Like Roland Bainton's biography of the generation before Kittelson's volume is the one known by thousands of students pastors and interested readers as the biography that gave them the details of this dramatic man and his history The accolades were well deserved Fair insightful and detailed without being overwhelming Kittelson was able to negotiate a middle way between the many directions of historical research and present a more complete chronological picture of Luther than many had yet portrayed For this revised edition Hans H. Wiersma has made an outstanding text even better The research is updated and the text is revised throughout with an emphasis on retaining the tone and pace of the original Additionally the volume has an entirely new map and image program updated bibliographies improved timelines and other features to enhance the reading experience It's a great volume greatly improved The Annotated Luther, Volume 6 Euan Cameron, 2019-04-01 This volume features Martin Luther the exegete and Bible teacher His vast exegetical writings and lectures on Scripture are introduced through important examples from both the Old and New Testaments Included in the volume is his brief treatise On Translating and his prefaces to both the Old and New Testaments to key sections of Scripture Psalter Prophets and to select books such as Genesis Isaiah Daniel Romans and Galatians The content is rounded out by examples from his lectures and sermons on specific texts including such examples as Genesis 1:26-2:3 Psalms 51 and 118 Isaiah 53 John 1:14 Romans 3:20-27 and 1

Brown,Günter Frank,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Tarald Rasmussen,Violet Soen,Zsombor Tóth,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,2022-05-16 The contributions in this volume enter the debate about the way in which the provision of poor relief can be influenced by its national confessional context They bring new perspectives to the understanding of theological aspects of Lutheranism such as the connection between justification by faith alone and care for the poor and work and work ethics The articles also analyse the implementation of social responsibility of the authority towards different categories of poor deserving and undeserving local administration and centralization of poor relief through connections of public and private sources of funding and collaboration between state church and civil society through different public and private aspects of poor relief In this way the various contributions combine to demonstrate new ways in the study of the connection between confessional specifics and historical developments through detailed knowledge of theology supported by concrete historical case studies

Stories from Global Lutheranism Martin J. Lohrmann,2021-01-12 In an engaging and accessible style Martin J Lohrmann introduces readers to fascinating glimpses of faith courage and love in action within the global Lutheran community that now numbers over 70 million members in churches worldwide He shows how Lutheranism is a much more diverse and global expression of the Christian tradition than most realize This matches the expansive view of the church universal that the Reformers held when they presented the Augsburg Confession in 1530 As Philipp Melanchthon put it the church consists of people scattered throughout the entire world who agree on the gospel and have the same Christ the same Holy Spirit and the same sacraments whether or not they have the same human traditions Although Lutheranism first grew and spread in central and northern Europe some of the most vibrant Lutheran communities are now in Africa and Asia There are more Lutherans in Tanzania than in Sweden and more Lutherans in Indonesia than in Norway The single largest Lutheran church body in the world is the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus with over 8 million members and a focus on caring for the whole person Outside of Europe Namibia is the only country with a majority Lutheran population Lutheran members of the global body of Christ have much to learn from and share with one another The book largely follows the subjects listed in the Timeline of Global Lutheranism that Lohrmann created for Lutheran Quarterly Journal to commemorate the 500 year anniversary of the Protestant Reformation
