Language in Strange and Familiar Places Alexandra Y. Aikhenvald, Anne Storch, Viveka Velupillai, 2025-06-02 Language and place are intimately connected depending on where we are what the context is and what our aims are we will adjust our language accordingly Yet linguistics defines itself by a framework that determines which kind of language is worth investigating Within that framework linguistics constructs both language and place in multiple ways language as a sequestered thing belongs to the field site or the classroom language as fluid practice is associated with the street language as reconstruction belongs to migration corridors What about the places that tend to fall between the cracks This volume explores language in strange and familiar places from Europe to Africa Amazonia Australia and the Pacific in order to shed light on them

Amdo Lullaby Shannon M. Ward, 2024-10-01 In Amdo a region of eastern Tibet incorporated into mainland China young children are being raised in a time of social change In the first decades of the twenty first century

Chinese state development policies are catalysing rural to urban migration consolidating schooling in urban centres and leading Tibetan farmers and nomads to give up their traditional livelihoods As a result children face increasing pressure to adopt the state's official language of Mandarin Amdo Lullaby charts the contrasting language socialization trajectories of rural and urban children from one extended family who are native speakers of a Tibetan language known locally as Farmer Talk By integrating a fine grained analysis of everyday conversations and oral history interviews linguistic anthropologist Shannon M Ward examines the forms of migration and resulting language contact that contribute to Farmer Talk's unique grammatical structures and that shape Amdo Tibetan children's language choices This analysis reveals that young children are not passively abandoning their mother tongue for standard Mandarin but instead are reformatting traditional Amdo Tibetan cultural associations among language place and kinship as they build their peer relationships in everyday play

Imagined Geographies in the Indo-Tibetan Borderlands Swargajyoti Gohain, 2025-10-01 Imagined Geographies in the Indo Tibetan Borderlands Culture Politics Place is an ethnography of culture and politics in Monyul a Tibetan Buddhist cultural region in west Arunachal Pradesh Northeast India For nearly three centuries Monyul was part of the Tibetan state and the Monpas as the communities inhabiting this region are collectively known participated in trans Himalayan trade and pilgrimage Following the colonial demarcation of the Indo Tibetan boundary in 1914 the fall of the Tibetan state in 1951 and the India China boundary war in 1962 Monyul was gradually integrated into India and the Monpas became a Scheduled Tribe In 2003 the Monpas began a demand for autonomy under the leadership of Tsona Gontse Rinpoche This book examines the narratives and politics of the autonomy movement regarding language place names and trans border kinship against the backdrop of the India China border dispute It explores how the Monpas negotiate multiple identities to imagine new forms of community that transcend regional and national borders The Oxford Handbook of Vowel Harmony Nancy A. Ritter, Harry van der Hulst, 2024-09-17 This handbook provides a detailed account of the phenomenon of vowel harmony a pattern according to which all vowels within a word must agree for some phonological property or properties Vowel harmony has been central in the development of phonological theories thanks to its cluster of remarkable properties notably its typically unbounded character and its non locality and because it forms part of the phonology of most world languages The five parts of this volume cover all aspects of vowel harmony from a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives Part I outlines the types of vowel harmony and some unusual cases before Part II explores structural issues such as vowel inventories the interaction of vowel harmony and morphological structure and locality The chapters in Part III provide an overview of the various theoretical accounts of the phenomenon as well as bringing in insights from language acquisition and psycholinguistics while Part IV focuses on the historical life cycle of vowel harmony looking at topics such as phonetic factors and the effect of language contact The final part contains 31 chapters that present data and analysis of vowel harmony across all major language families as well as several isolates constituting the broadest coverage of the phenomenon to date

Epistemic Modalities and Evidentiality in Cross-Linguistic Perspective Zlatka Guentchéva, 2018-04-09 This volume explores phenomena which come under the heading of epistemic modalities and evidentiality in more or less well known languages Germanic Romance Balto Slavic Hungarian Tibetan Lakandon and Yucatec Maya Arwak Chibchan Kogi and Ika It reveals cross linguistic variations in the structuring of these vast fields of enquiry and clearly demonstrates the relevance and interplay of multiple factors involved in the analysis of these two conceptual domains Although the contributions present diverging descriptive traditions they are nonetheless within the broad domain of functional typological linguistics and give access to distinct yet comparable approaches They all converge around a number of key issues modal verbs the relationship between epistemic modality and evidentiality the relationship of modal notions with some tense and aspect notions the notions of inter subjectivity commitment and dis engagement the prosodic variation of modal adverbs the diachronic connections between negation and evidential markers the connection with mirativity The volume is of interest to linguists and advanced graduate students working in general and theoretical linguistics semantics pragmatics cognition and typology

Bon and Naxi Manuscripts Agnieszka Helman-Ważny, Charles Ramble, 2023-01-30 The present volume offers a dozen studies of manuscripts of the Tibetan Bon and Naxi Dongba traditions across time and space While some of the contributions focus on particular features of manuscripts from either tradition others explicitly bridge the two by considering common codicological and material aspects of selected examples or common themes in the content of the texts This is the first primarily object based study to deal with the cultural history and technology of books from the two traditions It discusses collections of Bon and Naxi manuscripts the concepts and history of both traditions the science and technology of book studies as it relates to these collections the relationship between text and image writing materials and the historical and archaeological context of the manuscripts places of origin The authors are specialists in different fields including philology anthropology art history codicology and archaeometry The contributions shed light on trade routes materials and technologies as well as on reading practices and ritual usage of Bon and Naxi manuscripts Evidentiality, egophoricity and engagement Henrik Bergqvist ,Seppo Kittilä , The expression of knowledge in language i e epistemicity consists of a number of distinct notions and proposed categories that are only partly related to a well explored forms like epistemic modals The aim of the volume is therefore to contribute to the ongoing exploration of epistemic marking systems in lesser documented languages from the Americas Papua New Guinea and Central Asia from the perspective of language description and cross linguistic comparison As the title of the volume suggests part of this exploration consists of situating already established notions such as evidentiality with the diversity of systems found in individual languages Epistemic forms that feature in the present volume include ones that signal how speakers claim knowledge based on perceptual cognitive access evidentials the speaker s involvement as a basis for claiming epistemic authority egophorics the distribution of knowledge between the speech participants where the speaker signals assumptions about the addressee s knowledge of an event as either shared or non shared with the speaker engagement marking
