Film Noir Ian Brookes, 2017-03-09 What is film noir With its archetypal femme fatale and private eye its darkly lit scenes and even darker narratives the answer can seem obvious enough But as Ian Brookes shows in this new study the answer is a lot more complex than that This book is designed to tackle those complexities in a critical introduction that takes into account the problems of straightforward definition and classification Students will benefit from an accessible introductory text that is not just an account of what film noir is but also an interrogation of the ways in which the term came to be applied to a disparate group of American films of the 1940s and 1950s

A Matter of Life and Death Ian Christie, 2021-10-21 Produced in the aftermath of the Second World War Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's A Matter of Life and Death 1946 stars David Niven as an RAF pilot poised between life and death his love for the American radio operator June Kim Hunter threatened by medical political and ultimately celestial forces The film is a magical profound fantasy and a moving evocation of English history and the wartime experience with virtuoso Technicolor special effects In the United States it was released under the title Stairway to Heaven referencing one of its most famous images a moving stairway between earth and the afterlife Ian Christie's study of the film shows how its creators drew upon many sources and traditions to create a unique form of modern masque treating contemporary issues with witty allegory and enormous visual imagination He stresses the teamwork of Powell and Pressburger's gifted collaborators among them Director of Photography Jack Cardiff production designer Alfred Junge and costume designer Hein Heckroth and explores the history of both British and international responses to the film Christie argues that the film deserves to be thought of as one of the greatest achievements of British cinema but of all cinema British Film Institute Film and Television Handbook 1993 David Leafe,1992-12-01 No Marketing Blurb Mean Streets and Raging Bulls Richard Martin,2000-01-01 Classic film noir was Hollywood s dark cinema of crime and corruption a genre underpinned by a tone of existential cynicism which stripped bare the myth of the American Dream and offered a bleak nightmarish vision of a fragmented society that rhymed with many of the social realities of forties and fifties America Mean Streets and Raging Bulls explores how since its apparent demise in the late fifties the noir genre has been revitalized during the post studio era The book is divided into two sections In the first the evolution of film noir is contextualized in relation to both American cinema s industrial transformation and the post Depression history of the United States In the second the evolution of neo noir and its relation to classic film noir is illustrated by detailed reference to representative texts including Chinatown Roman Polanski 1974 Night Moves Arthur Penn 1975 Taxi Driver Martin Scorsese 1976 Blood Simple Joel and Ethan Coen 1984 After Hours Martin Scorsese 1985 Sea of Love Harold Becker 1989 Reservoir Dogs Quentin Tarantino 1992 and Romeo is Bleeding Peter Medak 1994 The 12-Hour Film Expert Noah Charney,James Charney,2024-06-18 The only book you need to become an expert on film history technique and appreciation This gateway book will deepen readers appreciation of milestone movies Library Journal If you are looking at this book then you probably love watching movies and television shows Who doesn t But most of us do so as passive entertainment to wind down relax and escape into alternative worlds Pay close attention though and you can enhance your movie watching experience and deepen your appreciation for the art of film This book will show you how In The 12 Hour Film Expert Noah Charney and James Charney offer readers all they need to know about how films are made and how to watch them in a more thoughtful way Through twelve chapters covering a wide array of genres and periods the authors highlight key films in each area of focus and explore important figures and more recent films to help readers develop their core understanding of films ranging from comedies to silent films noirs to romances and everything in between Most importantly though readers will learn how to truly watch movies The 12 Hour Film Expert asks essential questions What did the key films do differently How did they push the envelope establish new precedents The result is a capsule sized course in film appreciation The only book readers need to master their grasp of film history technique and appreciation it is perfect for movie lovers of all ages Grab the popcorn and settle in British Film Institute Film and Television Handbook 1995 Nicholas Thomas,1994-11-01 The 1995 guide brings together a range of statistics on the cinema television and video Produced in consultation with leading trade publications and organizations it includes coverage of producers distributors cinema feature film releases awards press contacts and film workshops Historical Dictionary of American Theater James Fisher,Felicia Hardison Londré,2017-11-22 This book covers the history of theater as well as the
