Riley and her best guy friend Reid have made a pact: they'll help each other pursue their respective crushes, make something happen, and document the details in a shared notebook. While Reid struggles with the moral dilemma of adopting a dog to win over a girl's heart, Riley tries to make progress with Ted Callahan, the guy she's been obsessed with forever. His floppy hair, his undeniable intelligence. But between a chance meeting with a fellow musician in a record store and a brief tryst with a science geek turned stud, not to mention Ted's own tentative attentions, cute guys are suddenly popping up everywhere. How did she never notice them before? As their love lives go from zero to sixty in the blink of an eye, Riley and Reid's pact may prove to be more than they bargained for. Autobiography of an Indian freedom fighter, pt. 1. Transnational Arab Stardom Kaya Davies Hayon, Stefanie Van de Peer, 2024-01-25. Building on the work of star studies scholars, this collection provides contextual analyses of off-screen representation as well as close textual analyses of films and star personas, thereby offering an in-depth study of the Arab star as text and context of Arab cinema. Using the tools of audience reception studies, the collection will also look at how stars of film, stage, screen, and new media are viewed and received in different cultural contexts, both within and outside of the Arabic-speaking world. Arab cinema is often discussed in terms of political representation and independent art film, but rarely in terms of stardom, glamour, performance, or masquerade. Aside from a few individual studies on female stardom or aspects of Arab masculinity, no major English language study on Arab stardom exists, and collections on transnational stars or world cinema also often neglect to include Arab performers. This new book seeks to address this gap by providing the first study dedicated entirely to stardom on the Arab screen. Structured chronologically and thematically, this collection highlights and explores Arab film, screen, and music stars through a transnational and interdisciplinary set of contributions that draw on feminist performance and film theories media studies sound studies material culture queer star and celebrity studies and social media studies The Hispanic Image on the Silver Screen Alfred Charles Richard,1992-06-30 This is the first collection of more than 1 800 films dealing with Hispanic topics themes and characters arranged chronologically from 1898 to 1935 with indepth annotations cross references and four separate indexes This is a study of Hollywood s treatment of Hispanics worldwide those living in South Central and North America the Philippines and Spain Employing a historical framework the author has organized the work for those interested in assessing the effects that motion pictures have had on the viewing public in establishing and perpetuating accepted stereotypes The role of censorship the Production Code Administration the Motion Picture Society of the Americas the Latin American market and Hollywood s version of Hispanic history are fully covered The Black Legend of Hispanic barbarity has existed in literature since the sixteenth century The early film makers and later Hollywood merely transferred the Black Legend to the silver screen and continued the accepted point of view created since the first conflict between England and Spain for supremacy in the Caribbean This work also shows the relationship between film and foreign policy how films have frequently justified and glorified North American intervention in the affairs of the Latin nations throughout the Americas Each entry includes a brief scenario which details the film s Hispanic connection a stereotype a historic interpretation a specific nation associated behavior or attitudes a list of the Hispanic actors and actresses Reviews bibliographic citations and archival locations are provided *Bootleg!
