Karnes, 2013-07-30 Typically regarded as reflecting on a culture in social political or psychological crisis the arts in fin de si cle Vienna had another side they were means by which creative individuals imagined better futures and perfected worlds dawning with the turn of the twentieth century As author Kevin C Karnes reveals much of this utopian discourse drew inspiration from the work of Richard Wagner whose writings and music stood for both a deluded past and an ideal future yet to come Illuminating this neglected dimension of Vienna s creative culture this book ranges widely across music philosophy and the visual arts Uncovering artworks long forgotten and providing new perspectives on some of the most celebrated achievements in the Western canon Karnes considers music by Mahler Schoenberg and Alexander Zemlinsky paintings sculptures and graphic art by Klimt Max Klinger and members of the Vienna Secession and philosophical writings by Nietzsche Schopenhauer and Maurice Maeterlinck Through analyses of artworks and the cultural dynamics that surrounded their creation and reception this study reveals a powerful current of millennial optimism running counter and parallel to the cultural pessimism widely associated with the period It discloses a utopian discourse that is at once beautiful moving and deeply disturbing as visions of perfection gave rise to ecstatic artworks and dystopian social and political realities List of Books Forming the Reference in the Reading Room of the British Museum British museum, 1910 List of Books Forming the Reference Library in the Reading Room of the British Museum British Museum.
