Los Living Narrativas Hispanicas:

(Re)mapping the Latina/o Literary Landscape Cristina Herrera, Larissa M. Mercado-López, 2016-08-10 This book broadens the scope of Latina o criticism to include both widely read and understudied nineteenth through twenty first century fictional works that engage in critical discussions of gender race sexuality and identity The essays in this collection do not simply seek inclusion for the texts they critically discuss but suggest that we more thoughtfully consider the utility of mapping whether we are mapping land borders time migration or connections and disconnections across time and space Using new and rigorous methodological approaches to reading Latina o literature contributors reveal a varied and textured landscape challenging us to reconsider the process and influence of literary production across borders

Foreigners in the Homeland Mario Santana, 2000 Foreigners in the Homeland analyzes the reception of the Latin American Boom novel in Spain It argues in favor of an expanded concept of national literature that is not restricted to the native production of citizens but also takes into consideration the importance and nationalization of foreign cultural products Charting the courses of interliterary relations between Spain and Spanish America the book analyzes the conditions of the literary market during the 1960s and 1970s follows the appropriation and canonization of Latin American authors and texts by readers and writers and examines their impact on the resurgence of regional literatures within Spanish territory

Aquatic Environments Bieke Willem, Rebecca Seewald, 2025-07-27 From pre Columbian times till today human interventions in aquatic environments have been shaping the geopolitics of Latin America The contributors to this volume examine the relationship between water and politics in Latin America via readings of fiction and poetry by both renowned and upcoming writers Through close literary analysis they demonstrate how water functions as a medium for narrating submerged histories and for unsettling post colonial assumptions The volume reveals literary strategies that make it possible to share knowledge about other ways of organizing life in aquatic environments

Imagining Ecuador Luis A. Medina Cordova, 2022 How are contemporary authors reimagining the idea of Ecuador following the worst financial crisis in the nation s history and how do countries on the periphery of the global literary market challenge and enrich World Literature Winner of the 2020 21 AHGBI Spanish Embassy Publication Prize In March 1999 in an effort to stave off financial collapse the Ecuadorian government suspended all banking operations and froze all bank accounts in the country for a period of five days This episode the Feriado Bancario represents the peak of the worst financial crisis in the nation s history and one which had far reaching and long last effects on society politics the economy and cultural production The very idea of Ecuador was transformed as Ecuador became a country marked by constant interaction with the world beyond its borders This book explores how contemporary Ecuadorian authors are reimagining the nation following the Feriado Bancario Starting from a rereading of Ecuador s national novel Jorge Icaza s Huasipungo 1930 which saw the nation as rooted in the land the book examines post crisis fiction which offers an image of Ecuador as a transnational space It posits that these novels Eli cer C rdenas El oscuro final del Porvenir 2000 Leonardo Valencia s Kazbek 2008 Carlos Arcos Memorias de Andr s Chiliquinga 2013 and Gabriela Alem n s Humo 2017 both reflect and explain the new reality of Ecuador as a nation that can no longer be defined by its territory At the same time the book uses the Ecuadorian case to challenge the conceptualisation of Latin American literature as post national and to show how countries on the periphery of the global literary market can from the very fact of their minoritarian position enrich and better define World Literature

Twentieth-century Spanish Fiction Writers Martha Eulalia Altisent, Cristina Mart n e z-Carazo, 2006 Essays on a variety of Spanish authors who shaped the development of Spanish fiction in the twentieth century Entries focus on the interconnections between life and writing and trace the writers personal response to the cultural intellectual and political concerns of the day as well as to the traditions and literary styles that shaped their imagination Provides a condensed assessment of the authors aesthetic and personal preferences as shown through their writings

The Feeling Child Philippa Page, Inela Selimovic, Camilla Sutherland, 2018-11-15 The Feeling Child Affect and Politics in Latin American Literature and Film compiles a series of essays focusing on the figure of the child within the specific context of the affective turn in the study of contemporary sociocultural settings across Latin America This edited volume looks specifically at the intersection between cultural constructions of childhood and the affective turn within the contemporary sociopolitical landscape of Latin America The editors and contributors share a common aim in furthering comprehension of the particular intensity of the child s affective presence spectatorial haptic silent and spectral among others in contemporary Latin American cultural expression The contributions herein approach this theoretical challenge through an interdisciplinary lens which brings together two burgeoning strands of inquiry The first is the notion of childhood as a significant and inherently political sociocultural space the second is the recognition that affect is integral and fundamental to gaining a more complex understanding of the manner in which contemporary social worlds are made In each case this affective presence is teased out as a register of society shedding light on the issues marking out the current sociopolitical landscape in particular the traces of the recent past in the regions represented This book brings together established international scholars and young academics focusing on Argentina Bolivia Chile Cuba and Peru

Fictionality, Factuality, and Reflexivity Across Discourses and Media Erika F l p, 2021-06-08 Concerned with the nature of the medium and the borders between fact and fiction reflexivity was a ubiquitous feature of modernist and postmodernist literature and film While in the wake of the post postmodern return to the real cultural criticism has little time for discussions of reflexivity it remains a key topic in narratology as does fictionality The latter is commonly defined opposition to the real and the factual but remains conditioned by historical cultural discursive and medium related factors Reflexivity blurs the boundaries between fact and fiction however by giving fiction a factual edge or by questioning the limits of factuality in non fictional discourses Fictionality factuality and reflexivity thus constitute a complex triangle of concepts yet they are rarely considered together This volume fills this gap by exploring the intricacies of their interactions and interdependence in philosophy literature film and digital media providing insights into a broad range of their manifestations from the ancient times to today from East Asia through Europe to the Americas

The Savage Detectives Reread David Kurnick,2022-02-01 The Savage Detectives elicits mixed feelings An instant classic in the Spanish speaking world upon its 1998 publication a critical and commercial smash on its 2007 translation into English Roberto Bola o s novel has also been called an exercise in 1970s nostalgia an escapist fantasy of a romanticized Latin America and a publicity event propped up by the myth of the bad boy artist David Kurnick argues that the controversies surrounding Bola o s life and work have obscured his achievements and that The Savage Detectives is still underappreciated for the subtlety and vitality of its portrait of collective life Kurnick explores The Savage Detectives as an epic of social structure and its decomposition a novel that restlessly moves between the big configurations of states continents and generations and the everyday stuff parties jobs moods sex conversation of which they re made For Kurnick Bola o s book is a necromantic invocation of life in history one that demands surrender as much as analysis Kurnick alternates literary critical arguments with explorations of the novel s microclimates and neighborhoods the little atmospheric zones where some of Bola o s most interesting rethinking of sexuality politics and literature takes place He also claims that The Savage Detectives holds particular interest for U S readers not because it panders to them but because it heralds the exhilarating prospect of a world in which American culture has lost its presumptive centrality
