Badcock, 1997 The doctrine of the Holy Spirit has often been a neglected theme in Christian thought In Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D. Badcock attempts to redress this theological imbalance and to reassert the centrality of the doctrine of the Spirit in Christian theology Badcock begins by surveying what both the Old and New Testaments have to say about the Spirit Next he traces the history of the theology of the Spirit examining a number of crucial episodes and questions in the field of pneumatology in the history of Christian thought and then proceeds to develop a contemporary theology of the Spirit Badcock goes on to relate this theology of the Spirit to the theological enterprise initiated by Karl Barth earlier in this century the return to the doctrine of the Trinity as the framework for Christian reflection Setting forth the positive and negative results of much of contemporary trinitarian theology Badcock ultimately makes a case for a balanced doctrine of the Word and the Spirit in which neither is subordinated to the other O Love! GOD'S LOVE AS A CONSUMING FIRE E. Dean Cook,2025-07-25 The Bible describes God as a consuming fire in both the Old and New Testaments Many people interpret this statement as something to be feared The truth is it is actually the opposite and refers to God s enormous love for us This book provides evidence of God s attempt to reveal Himself as loving fire in the Old Testament and as Christ filling us with the Holy Spirit of fire in the New Testament The End Times described in the Bible are actually the fulfillment of this consuming love of God for us For the Believer it is a glorious and joyous relationship that we enter into with God Himself However for those who choose to reject the presence of God in their life this great act of blessing for them becomes a dark time of suffering and hopelessness It is the hope of the author that this book will encourage the reader to seek after God and His love instead of living in fear     Treasury of Wisdom, Wit and Humor, Odd Comparisons and Proverbs ,1891     Wounds of Love Frank Graziano,2004 St Rose of Lima Isabel Flores y Oliva 1586 1617 was canonized in 1671 as the first saint of the New World and Patron of the Americas In this engrossing new biography Frank Graziano offers the most comprehensive examination of the life of Rose to appear in any language An obscure self mortifying mystic Rose seems a strange choice for the distinction of first American saint Graziano argues that the cult that grew up around St Rose during her life and greatly expanded after her death was seen by both Church and State as a challenge and even a threat to authority For that reason he contends the Church acted quickly to render her harmless by bringing her into the fold Graziano goes on to consider Rose s ascetic Christianity in its cultural context He seeks to discover why the severe austerities and mortifications of female piety that today are regarded as psychopathological were lauded as exemplary means of worship in the seventeenth century In fact he shows St Rose s behavior and experiences were initially regarded as pathological by many significant observers within her own culture but such assessments were gradually dismissed as her saintly image was constructed Drawing on key archival sources and the insights offered by psychoanalytic theory Graziano constructs a compelling portrait of one of the Catholic Church s most beloved saints     The gospel pulpit.
