Love's All that Makes Sense Francis Sakeenah, 2013

Love Is All That Makes Sense Sakeena Francis, Anika

Francis, 2013 Sakeenah Francis describes her life as a Cinderella story in reverse She grew up in a well respected middle class African American family She went to college was homecoming queen married began a career and had children Then schizophrenia struck and she lost everything She went from homecoming queen to being homeless and institutionalized Sakeenah Francis tells her daughter about her darkest moments of living with schizophrenia in a series of letters that chronicle the first time she heard voices in her head her hospitalizations her struggle to parent and her arduous path to long term recovery Both shaken and moved by her mother's revealing letters Anika faces the haunting effects her mother's mental illness had on her After years of keeping the secret about her mother's illness Anika breaks her silence voicing what it was like to grow up with a mother with a severe mental illness She describes the emotional roller coaster created by her mother's bouts of recovery and how this impacted her well into adulthood Though Sakeenah lost many bouts in her early struggles with schizophrenia she kept striving Through it all there was love which at times was the only thing that made sense to Sakeenah and Anika Love gave them the strength and resilience to heal and piece together that which schizophrenia had torn apart in our lives This sobering story carries a message of hope that will be inspiring to people affected by a severe mental illness and the web of people connected to them

Unfaithful Mind Marion Gibson, 2013-07

What had happened to our beautiful happy life Could it really be over for us I just wasn't sure if our love was strong enough to keep us together I probably believed it wasn't It was an idyllic marriage John and Marion were high school sweethearts who married and began a successful life together He was an internationally respected scientist in his field and she was a business woman in her family firm With three children and finally settled in Victoria BC Canada after stints in Vienna and Australia tragedy struck Despite the eventual and probable diagnosis of late onset schizophrenia John and Marion struggled to hold their family together and to deal with an illness that usually strikes much earlier in life This is their story of what happens when your mind betrays you
