Paul Klee, 1879-1940 Susanna Partsch, 2015 Meet a giant of 20th century modernism with this introduction to Paul Klee the Swiss born painter whose highly individual style combined Cubism Expressionism and Surrealism in sun drenched landscapes child like figures and enigmatic symbols Though typically small in scale Klee's works are remarkable for their sophisticated thought and meticulous nuances of line color and tonality Klee 1879-1940 Susanna Partsch, Paul Klee, 2000 The entertaining companion novel to the best selling The Sweet Second Life of Darrell Kincaid Michelle Lawrence's perfect life has been just as she's designed it But then her husband Chad ruins everything by taking a job in San Francisco about as far from their comfortable family home as it's possible to get without actually emigrating Up until now Chad's primary focus has been keeping her happy and Michelle can see no good reason why this should change But change it has and Michelle now has to deal with Chad's increasing detachment while building a new life with her two small children in a place filled with cat eating coyotes On top of that Michelle's oldest friend is turning against marriage while her newest is a little too obsessed with clean taps And down the redwood lined street there's Aishe Herne a woman who could pick a fight with a silent order of nuns Aishe has designed her own kind of perfect life in which there's room for her her teenage son and no one else But when cousin Patrick lands in town like a Cockney nemesis both Aishe and Michelle must begin determined campaigns to regain their grip on the steering wheel of their lives The Catherine Robertson Trilogy Book 1 The Sweet Second Life of Darrell Kincaid Book 2 The Not So Perfect Life of Mo Lawrence Book 3 The Misplaced Affections of Charlotte Forbes Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Eran Neuman, 2023-11-30 Arieh Sharon and Modern Architecture in Israel Building Social Pragmatism offers the first comprehensive survey of the work of Arieh Sharon and analyzes and discusses his designs and plans in relation to the emergence of the State of Israel A graduate of the Bauhaus Sharon worked for a few years at the office of Hannes Mayer before returning to Mandatory Palestine There he established his office which was occupied in its first years in planning kibbutzim and residential buildings in Tel Aviv After the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948 Arieh Sharon became the director and chief architect of the National Planning Department where he was asked to devise the young country's first national masterplan Known as the Sharon Plan it was instrumental in shaping the development of the new nation During the 1950s and 1960s Sharon designed many of Israel s institutions including hospitals and buildings on university campuses This book presents Sharon s exceptionally wide range of work and examines his perception of architecture in both socialist and pragmatist terms It also explores Sharon s modernist approach to architecture and his subsequent shift to Brutalist architecture when he partnered with Benjamin Idelson in the 1950s and when his son Eldar Sharon joined the office in 1964 Thus the book contributes a missing chapter in the historiography of Israeli architecture in particular and of modern architecture overall This book will be of interest to researchers in architecture modern architecture Israel studies Middle Eastern studies and migration of knowledge

Mouse Muse Lorna Owen,2014-11-18 A beautifully designed introduction to art history by way of artworks that feature the mouse from the ancient world to drawings by Picasso Disney and Art Spiegelman Across centuries and civilizations artists have used the mouse the planet s most common mammal after us to illustrate our myths and beliefs Mice have appeared as Japanese symbols of good luck or medieval emblems of evil in Arab fables Russian political satire and Nazi propaganda as scientific tools and to help us challenge the way we see nature With more than 80 rarely reproduced works including paintings by Hieronymus Bosch and Gustav Klimt a silkscreen by Andy Warhol a print by Hokusai a photograph by Andr Kert sz a sculpture by Claes Oldenburg a video installation by Bruce Nauman a performance by Joseph Beuys and many more Lorna Owen has created an engaging presentation of an extraordinary range The pieces which represent every period of visual art are accompanied by Owen s intriguing text about the story behind each work She has combined her passion for art and her empathy for the unsung archetype of the animal kingdom to explain not only how or why the artist came to use the mouse as a subject but how the art in the end reveals more about us than it could ever reveal about this humble creature

Marc Susanna Partsch, Franz Marc, 2001 Animal expressions Franz Marc s search for a universal art Franz Marc 1880 1916 became known principally for his images of animals blue horses yellow tigers red fawns What was it that led him to concentrate on painting animals Marc himself explained his choice of subject matter in these words From an early date I felt humankind to be ugly animals seemed to me possessed of a greater beauty and purity Seeing Marc merely as a painter of animals proves however premature Marc cofounder of the Blaue Reiter group of Expressionist artists was deeply dissatisfied with the impurity of the world and was on a quest for a universal art which would resolve the contrarities of life in the harmony of creation Using pure colors highly charged with symbolic values adopting crystalline shapes and absorbing the influence of Cubism he moved steadily towards an abstract order of image coming closer to his own understanding of a better world At the age of 36 Franz Marc s life was cut short when he died in the Battle of Verdun About the Series Each book in TASCHEN s Basic Art series features a detailed chronological summary of the life and oeuvre of the artist covering his or her cultural and historical importance a concise biography approximately 100 illustrations with explanatory captions
