Book of Musical Knowledge Arthur Elson,1915 Maya Christian Murals of Early Modern Yucatán Amara Solari,Linda K. Williams,2024-11-12 The first study of Christian murals created by indigenous artists in sixteenth and seventeenth century Yucatán In the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Maya artists painted murals in churches and conventos of Yucatán using traditional techniques to depict iconography brought from Europe by Franciscan friars The fragmentary visual remains and their placement within religious structures embed Maya conceptions of sacredness beyond the didactic imagery Mobilizing both cutting edge technology and tried and true analytical methods art historians Amara Solari and Linda K Williams reexamine the Maya Christian murals centering the agency of the people who created them The first volume to comprehensively document the paintings Maya Christian Murals of Early Modern Yucatán collects new research on the material composition of the works made possible by cutting edge imaging methods Solari and Williams investigate pigments and other material resources as well as the artists and historical contexts of the murals The authors uncover numerous local innovations in form and content including images celebrating New World saints celestial timekeeping and ritual processions Solari and Williams argue that these murals were not simply vehicles of coercion but of cultural grafting that allowed Maya artists to shape a distinctive and polyvocal legacy in their communities

Transformation Processes in Europe and Beyond Florian Weber,Olaf Kühne,Julia Dittel,2024-07-05 Europe and the world in all their diversity and complexity have always been and continue to be in a state of change Recent geo political environmental social and economic developments demonstrate a world in constant flux These ever changing framework conditions require corresponding transformations in many different structures This anthology takes these observations as a starting point to illuminate theoretical perspectives methodological approaches and empirical insights related to recent transformation processes in Europe and beyond with a special focus in this respect on the USA In view of their comprehensive nature transformation processes cannot be analysed from a single perspective a uniform approach or theory would fail to address their complexity and contingency In this sense horizontal geographies serves as our theoretical framework The concept refers to comprehensive synthesizing regional analyses which collect structure and reflect on knowledge with diverse spatial social and cultural contexts The interdisciplinary and international authorship does justice to the idea of horizontal multi perspective geographies and considers a wide range of transformation processes in Europe and
