Los Enamoramientos Javier Mar As:

Los enamoramientos / The Infatuations Javier Marías, 2013-08-13 Un libro sobre el estado de enamoramiento que parece justificar todas las cosas Mejor libro del año 2011 según Babelia Cada mañana María Dolz contempla en una cafetería a una pareja a la que no conoce de nada cuya felicidad intuye y acaso envidia Este ritual la ayuda a empezar la jornada hasta que un día se entera de la muerte del hombre a manos de un enajenado Más tarde una relación imprevista quizá imprudente acerca a María a los pormenores del suceso El embriagador estado de enamoramiento y las acciones que desencadena positivas o viles generosas o egoístas la impunidad la presencia casi permanente de los muertos en nuestras vidas la memoria la imposibilidad de conocer cabalmente la verdad son algunos de los temas por los que discurre firme y sinuosa una de las mejores novelas de su autor Genre Fusion Sara J. Brenneis, 2014-05-15 Although the boom in historical fiction and historiography about Spain's recent past has found an eager readership these texts are rarely studied as two halves of the same story With Genre Fusion: A New Approach to History Fiction and Memory in Contemporary Spain Sara J Brenneis argues that fiction and nonfiction written by a single author and focused on the same historical moment deserve to be read side by side By proposing a literary model that examines these genres together Genre Fusion gives equal importance to fiction and historiography in Spain In her book Brenneis develops a new theory of genre fusion to show how authors who write both historiography and fiction produce a more accurate representation of the lived experience of Spanish history than would be possible in a single genre Genre Fusion opens with a straightforward overview of the relationships among history fiction and memory in contemporary culture While providing an up to date context for scholarly debates about Spain's historical memory Genre Fusion also expands the contours of the discussion beyond the specialized territory of Hispanic studies To demonstrate the theoretical necessity of genre fusion Brenneis analyzes pairs of interconnected texts one a work of literature the other a work of historiography written by a single author She explores how fictional and nonfictional works by Montserrat Roig Carmen Martín Gaité Carlos Blanco Aguinaga and Javier Marías unearth the collective memories of Spain's past Through these four authors Genre Fusion traces the transformation of a country once enveloped in a postwar silence to one currently consumed by its own history and memory Brenneis demonstrates that when read through the lens of genre fusion these Spanish authors shelve the country's stagnant official record of its past and unlock the collective and personal accounts of the people who constitute Spanish history Against Abstraction Alberto Moreiras, 2020-01-10 In 2015

members of the philosophy department at the University of Madrid conducted an interview with Alberto Moreiras for the university's digital archive The resulting dialogues and the Spanish edition of this work Marranismo e inscripción o el abandono de la conciencia desdichada are the basis for Against Abstraction supplemented with an interview conducted for the Chilean journal Papel mquina In these landmark conversations Moreiras describes how though he was initially committed to Latin American literary studies he eventually transitioned to become an eminent scholar of critical theory existential philosophy and ultimately infrapolitics and posthegemony Blending intellectual autobiography with a survey of Hispanism as practiced in universities in the United States including the schisms in Latin American subaltern studies that eventually led to Moreiras's departure from Duke University these narratives read like a picaresque and a polemic on the symbolic power of scholars Drawing on the concept of marranism originally a term for Iberian Jews and Muslims forced to convert to Christianity during the Middle Ages to consider the situations and allegiances he has navigated over the years Moreiras has produced a multifaceted self portrait that will surely spark further discourse El lenguaje de la mar de Cádiz Javier Osuna García, Erasmo Uberta Morón, 1991 Más de 1 100 artículos que con normalidad usan los hombres de la mar de Cádiz contrastados con 1 248 denominaciones de peces crustáceos o moluscos de los diferentes lugares de la geografía española
