Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola,2024-09-11 In Representations of Child Soldiers in Contemporary African Narratives Ademola Adesola examines the dominant factors that writers privilege in their portrayals of child soldiering in sub Saharan Africa In his textual interpretive analyses of selected novels in the African child soldier genre Adesola contends that critical discussions of African child soldier literature have depended on the interpretive frameworks supplied by Western humanitarian discourses which oversimplify and de historicize experiences of war in Africa The author argues that such reductive decontextualization of war realities serve to champion a narrow vision of war in African contexts centered on a moral and humanitarian urge for Western intervention Regardless of whether the casus belli legitimating those wars are genuine or not those conflicts and children s involvement in them are understood within the same racist colonial and ethnocentric stereotypes about Africa that have been privileged in Western thought and the Western moral political imagination for centuries Thus in studying African child soldier narratives this book provides an alternative reading of novels whose settings feature African ethnopolitical conflicts such as in Sierra Leone Liberia Congo Brazzaville Nigeria notable for their exploitation of children for military ends The author maintains that these works are significant in the varying ways they reify and challenge the Western ideas of child and childhood as well as privilege child soldiers as social actors whose intricate makeups disavow being simply understood as innocent victims or irredeemable perpetrators of atrocities

The Phenomenological Study of the Lost Generation of Sudan Elias Rinaldo Gamboriko, 2015-01-14 The purpose of this study was to examine the situation of the lost girls and boys of Sudan and to identify the effects of civil war in the country The effects of war in the country left most Sudanese traumatized in refugee camps while a few managed to relocate to the United States and settle in South Dakota Through this study some of the lived experiences of several lost girls and boys who have suffered psychologically and socially as a result of being exposed to civil war and being forced to relocate to the United States have been identified The degree to which these Sudanese immigrants current lives in the U S are affected by what they witnessed and experienced as well as the extent to which their treatment was helpful in restoring their mental health was also examined Information from the interviews showed that each of the experiences of these young men and women were unique and that each immigrant coped with their experiences differently One conclusion drawn from the study was that a majority of the support for these new immigrants should be given to those individuals who are 18 or older when they arrive Time and Space in Literacy Research Catherine Compton-Lilly, Erica Halverson, 2014-04-24 Literacy researchers interested in how specific sites of learning situate students and the ways they make sense of their worlds are asking new questions and thinking in new ways about how time and space operate as contextual dimensions in the learning lives of students teachers and families These investigations inform questions related to history identity methodology in school and out of school spaces and local global literacies An engaging blend of methodological theoretical and empirical work featuring well known researchers on the topic this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and ground breaking examples of empirical research Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa s nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading Life Narratives and Youth Culture Kate Douglas, Anna Poletti, 2016-12-26 This book considers the largely under recognised contribution that young writers have made to life writing genres such as memoir letter writing and diaries as well as their innovative use of independent and social media The authors argue that these contributions have been historically silenced subsumed within other literary genres culturally marginalised or co opted for political ends Furthermore the book considers how life narrative is an important means for youth agency and cultural participation By engaging in private and public modes of self representation young people have contested public discourses around the representation of youth including media health and welfare and legal discourses and found means for re engaging and re appropriating self images and representations Locating their research within broader theoretical debates from childhood and youth studies youth creative practice and associated cultural implications youth citizenship and autonomy the rights of the child generations and power relationships Poletti and Douglas also position their inquiry within life narrative scholarship and wider discussions of self representation from the margins representations of conflict and trauma and theories of ethical scholarship War
