Honoré de Balzac

Lost Illusions Lost Illusions:

Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac, 2019-11-20 In Lost Illusions Honoré de Balzac presents a sweeping narrative that intricately explores the complexities of ambition, disillusionment, and the harsh realities of the Parisian literary world in the early 19th century. The novel is characterized by its rich, vivid prose and psychological depth, reflecting Balzac's meticulous attention to character development and social critique. Set against the backdrop of the burgeoning capitalist society, the story follows the young poet Lucien de Rubempré as he navigates the treacherous waters of literary success and moral compromise, unveiling the stark contrasts between romantic idealism and the stark pragmatism of reality. Honoré de Balzac, a pivotal figure in French literature, was deeply influenced by his own experiences in the tumultuous world of art and politics during the Restoration period. His background as a struggling writer and his keen observations of the society around him provided the foundation for this profound exploration of themes that resonate with universal human experiences. Balzac's extensive work serves as a precursor to realism, offering insight into the social fabric of his time and the often painful journey of self-discovery. Lost Illusions is essential reading for anyone interested in the interplay between art and society, as well as the consequences of ambition and disillusionment. Balzac's masterpiece not only captivates with its intricate storytelling but also invites readers to reflect on their own aspirations within a world that often prioritizes material success over artistic integrity.

Lost Illusions Malcolm Cross, Han Entzinger, 2022-11-16 Lost Illusions, first published in 1988, analyses the differing experiences of Caribbean migration to Britain and the Netherlands, both from the perspectives of the countries and from the migrants themselves. The editors have compiled a volume of in-depth articles from experts from Britain and the Netherlands to provide an essential examination of Caribbean migration to two different European countries in the 1970s and 1980s.

Lost Illusions Herbert Hunt, Honoré de Balzac, 2005-01-27 Handsome would-be poet Lucien Chardon is poor and naïve but highly ambitious. Failing to make his name in his dull provincial hometown, he is taken up by a patroness, the captivating married woman Madame de Bargeton, and prepares to forge his way in the glamorous beau monde of Paris. But Lucien has entered a world far more dangerous than he realized, as Madame de Bargeton's reputation becomes compromised and the fickle, venomous denizens of the courts and salons conspire to keep him out of their ranks. Lucien eventually learns that wherever he goes, talent counts for nothing in comparison to money, intrigue, and unscrupulousness. Lost Illusions is one of the greatest novels in the rich procession of the Comédie humaine, Balzac's panoramic social and moral history of his times.

Lost Illusions James Harding, 1974 Re-creates the vanished world of a man who once regarded as an eccentric is now recognized as a significant figure in contemporary literature. Traces Leautaud's intimate friendships with many famous writers of the time and gives us a lively panorama of the French literary scene.
