THROUGHOUT HISTORY AND ACROSS CULTURES the most common form of violence is that between family members and neighbors or kindred communities in civil wars writ large and small From assault to genocide from assassination to massacre violence usually emerges from inside the fold You have more to fear from a spouse an ex spouse or a coworker than you do from someone you don't know In this brilliant polemic Russell Jacoby argues that violence erupts most often and most savagely between those of us most closely related An Indian nationalist assassinated Mohandas Gandhi the father of India An Egyptian Muslim assassinated Anwar Sadat the president of Egypt and a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize An Israeli Jew assassinated Yitzhak Rabin the Israeli prime minister and similarly a recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize Genocide most often involves kindred groups The German Christians of the 1930s were so closely intertwined with German Jews that a yellow star was required to tell the groups apart Serbs and Muslims in Bosnia like the Hutu and Tutsi in Rwanda are often indistinguishable even to one another This idea contradicts both common sense and the collective wisdom of teachers and preachers who declaim that we fear and sometimes should fear the other the dangerous stranger Citizens and scholars alike believe that enemies lurk in the street and beyond where we confront a clash of civilizations with foreigners who challenge our way of life Jacoby offers a more unsettling truth it is not so much the unknown that threatens us but the known We attack our brothers our kin our acquaintances our neighbors with far greater regularity and venom than we attack outsiders Weaving together the biblical story of Cain and Abel Freud's narcissism of minor differences insights on anti-Semitism and misogyny as well as fresh analyses of civil bloodbaths from the St Bartholomew's Day Massacre in the sixteenth century to genocide and terrorism in our own time Jacoby turns history inside out to offer a provocative new understanding of violent confrontation over the centuries In thinking about the bad we reach for the good he says in his Introduction This passionate counterintuitive account affords us an unprecedented insight into the roots of violence The Novel: An Alternative History Steven Moore, 2013-09-17 Encyclopedic in scope and heroically audacious The Novel An Alternative History is the first attempt in over a century to tell the complete story of our most popular literary form Contrary to conventional wisdom the novel did not originate in 18th century England nor even with Don Quixote but is coeval with civilization itself After a pugnacious introduction in which Moore defends innovative demanding novelists against their conservative critics the book relaxes into a world tour of the pre modern novel beginning in ancient Egypt and ending in 16th century China with many exotic ports of call Greek romances Roman satires medieval Sanskrit novels narrated by parrots Byzantine erotic thrillers 5000 page Arabian adventure novels Icelandic sagas delicate Persian novels in verse Japanese war stories even Mayan graphic novels Throughout Moore celebrates the innovators in fiction tracing a continuum between these pre modern experimentalists and their postmodern progeny Irreverent iconoclastic informative entertaining The Novel An Alternative History is a landmark in literary criticism that will encourage readers to rethink the novel Shatterzone of Empires Larry Wolfe, Gregor Thum, Dan Diner, Theodore R. Robertson, 2019-07-11 All Religion Is Inter Religion analyses the ways inter religious relations have contributed both historically and philosophically to the constructions of the category of religion as a distinct subject of study Regarded as contemporary classics Steven M Wasserstrom's Religion after Religion 1999 and Between Muslim and Jew 1995 provided a theoretical reorientation for the study of religion away from hierophanies and ultimacy and toward lived history and deep pluralism This book distills and systematizes this reorientation into nine theses on the study of religion Drawing on these theses and Wasserstrom's opus more generally a distinguished group of his colleagues and former students demonstrate that religions can and must be understood through encounters in real time and space through the complex relations they create and maintain between people and between people and their pasts The book also features an afterword by Wasserstrom himself which poses nine riddles to students of religion based on his personal experiences working on religion at the turn of the twenty first century Cognitive Capitalism Heiner Rindermann, 2018-02-15 Nations can vary greatly in their wealth

Mediterranean Malte Fuhrmann,2020-10-29 Eastern Mediterranean port cities such as Constantinople Smyrna and Salonica have long been sites of fascination Known for their vibrant and diverse populations the dynamism of their economic and cultural exchanges and their form of relatively peaceful co existence in a turbulent age many would label them as models of cosmopolitanism In this study Malte Fuhrmann examines changes in the histories of space consumption and identities in the nineteenth and early twentieth century while the Mediterranean became a zone of influence for European powers Giving voice to the port cities forgotten inhabitants Fuhrmann explores how their urban populations adapted to European practices how entertainment became a marker of a Europeanized way of life and consuming beer celebrated innovation cosmopolitanism and mixed gender sociability At the same time these adaptations to a European way of life were modified according to local needs as was the case for the new quays streets and buildings Revisiting leisure practises as well as the formation of class gender and national identities Fuhrmann offers an alternative view on the relationship between the Islamic World and Europe Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasché,2021-06-01 Is the idea of Europe outdated The concept of European unity the animating spirit of the European Union seems increasingly fragile in the face of far right populist movements In Locating Europe Rodolphe Gasch attempts to answer the question of how to think about Europe Is it a figure a concept or an idea Is there anything still compelling and urgent about the idea of Europe By looking at phenomenologist and postphenomenological thinkers in the second half of the 20th century Gasch reveals that Europe is more than just one geographical and cultural entity The idea of Europe is based on common foundations a distinctive conception of reason of self criticism of responsibility freedom equality human rights and democracy and it is these foundations that are under threat In
