

"When the evening
patient etherized upon a table."

"Slower," he said.

I felt bashful, like I had when I'd first told him of An Imperial Affliction. "Um, okay. Okay. 'Let us go, through certain half-deserted streets, / The muttering retreats / Of restless nights in one-night cheap hotels / And sawdust restaurants with oyster-shells: / Streets that follow like a tedious argument / Of insidious intent / To lead you to an overwhelming question . . . / Oh, do not ask, 'What is it?' / Let us go and make our visit.'"

"I'm in love with you," he said quietly.

"Augustus," I said.

"I am," he said. He was staring at me, and I could see the corners of his eyes crinkling. "I'm in love with you, and I'm not in the business of denying myself the simple pleasure of saying true things. I'm in love with you, and I know that love is just a shout into the void, and that oblivion is inevitable, and that we're all doomed and that there will come a day when all our labor has been returned to dust, and I know the sun will swallow the only earth we'll ever have, and I am in love with you."

"Augustus," I said again, not knowing what else to

Love Confession For Baka Book:

The Charcoal Heart J..G.G. Hearts, In the grimy smoke filled alleys of 1990s Manila a man s heart can turn to charcoal For Kael life is a slow burn of despair Haunted by a family tragedy and trapped in the suffocating poverty of the Ulingan slums Kael provides for his sick sister and aging grandmother by making charcoal a trade that has stained his hands and his soul He believes he is as worthless as the ash he creates his heart a cold brittle and blackened thing His only plan is to survive and his only language is anger But when an unwanted Bible found in the trash and the inexplicable kindness of a local pastor begin to sow seeds of a terrifying hope Kael s world is turned upside down As a brutal gang leader threatens to destroy what little he has Kael is pushed to a breaking point forced to confront the darkness both in the alleys and within his own heart Can a man who only knows how to create ashes learn to cultivate hope Can a heart of charcoal be set ablaze by grace The Charcoal Heart is a raw unflinching and ultimately triumphant story of redemption that will grip your heart and not let go It is a powerful reminder that even in the deepest darkness light can find a way in and that the most broken souls can burn the brightest If you believe in the power of second chances the resilience of the human spirit and the stubborn life changing hope of faith this is a story you cannot miss Pick up your copy and step into the world of Ulingan today A History of Polish Literature Anna Nasiłowska,2024-06-11 Anna Nasiłowska s A History of Polish Literature is a one volume guide that immerses readers in the rich tapestry of Polish literature and reveals its enduring impact on European identity from the Middle Ages to the late twentieth century By exploring key themes writers and works and grounding her discussion in crucial biographical context she weaves together the lives of a carefully curated list of Polish writers to paint a vivid literary portrait elucidating the epochs that these writers shaped Offering indispensable insights for readers who may be unfamiliar with the world of Polish literature it is an excellent jumping off point for further study and learning The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian Literature Joshua S. Mostow,2003-07-10 This extraordinary one volume guide to the modern literatures of China Japan and Korea is the definitive reference work on the subject in the English language With more than one hundred articles that show how a host of authors and literary movements have contributed to the general literary development of their respective countries this companion is an essential starting point for the study of East Asian literatures Comprehensive thematic essays introduce each geographical section with historical overviews and surveys of persistent themes in the literature examined including nationalism gender family relations and sexuality Following the thematic essays are the individual entries over forty for China over fifty for Japan and almost thirty for Korea featuring everything from detailed analyses of the works of Tanizaki Jun ichiro and Murakami Haruki to far ranging explorations of avant garde fiction in China and postwar novels in Korea Arrayed chronologically each entry is self contained though extensive cross referencing affords readers the opportunity to gain a more synoptic view of the work author or movement The unrivaled opportunities for comparative analysis alone make this unique companion an indispensable reference for anyone interested in the burgeoning field of Asian literature Although the literatures of China Japan and Korea are each allotted separate sections the editors constantly kept an eye open to those writers works and movements that transcend national boundaries This includes for example Chinese authors who lived and wrote in Japan Japanese authors who wrote in classical Chinese and Korean authors who write in Japanese whether under the colonial occupation or because they are resident in Japan The waves of modernization can be seen as reaching each of these countries in a staggered fashion with eddies and back flows between them then complicating the picture further This volume provides a vivid sense of this dynamic interplay

Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions
