Love Rebel Reclaiming Motherhood:

Love Rebel Monique / M. Les / L, Anna Eastland / E, Melanie Juneau, 2015-07-12 Compiled and edited by Roberta Cottam this slender anthology aspires to encourage today's moms in their vocation of motherhood From inspiring poetry to practical tips essays that capture the small moments of motherhood and reflections on mothering in today's world this anthology brings together a wealth of wisdom from five ordinary yet inspiring moms Reclaiming Home, Remembering Motherhood, Rewriting History Marie Drews, Verena Theile, 2009-05-05 Reclaiming Home Remembering Motherhood Rewriting History African American and Afro Caribbean Women's Literature in the Twentieth Century offers a critical valuation of literature composed by black female writers and examines their projects of reclamation memory and revision As a collection it engages black women writers efforts to create more inclusive conceptualizations of community gender and history conceptualizations that take into account alternate lived and written experiences as well as imagined futures Contributors to this collection probe the realms of gender studies postcolonialism and post structural theory and suggest important ways in which to explore connections between home motherhood and history across the multifarious narratives of African American and Afro Caribbean experiences Together they argue that it is through their female characters that black women writers demonstrate the tumultuous processes of deciphering home and homeland of articulating the complexities of mothering relationships and of locating their own personal history within local and national narratives Essays gathered in this collection consider the works of African American women writers Pauline Hopkins Toni Morrison Jessie Redmon Fauset Audre Lorde Lalita Tademy Lorene Cary Octavia Butler Zora Neale Hurston and Sherley Anne Williams alongside the works of black women writers from the Caribbean Jamaica Kincaid and Gisèle Pineau Guyana Grace Nichols and Cuba Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reclaiming Migrant Motherhood Maria D. Lombard, 2022-02-18 The global landscape is dotted with border crossings that can be particularly perilous for displaced women with children in tow These mothers are often described by their various legal statuses like refugee migrant immigrant forced or voluntary but their lived experiences are more complex than a single label Reclaiming Migrant Motherhood looks at literature film and original ethnographic research about the lived experiences of displaced mothers This volume considers the context of the global refugee crisis forced migration and resettlement as backdrops for the representations and identity development of displaced women who mother Situated within motherhood studies this book is at the interdisciplinary intersection of literature life writing gender immigration refugee and cultural studies Contributors examine literary fiction memoirs and children's literature by Ocean Vuong Nadifa Mohamed Laila Halaby Susan Muaddi Darraj Terry Farish Thannha Lai Bich Minh Nguyen Julie Otsuka V V Ganeshanathan Shankari Chandran and Mary Anne Mohanraj The book also explores ethnographic research creative writing and film related to refugee studies The border crossings discussed in the volume are often physical with stories from Afghanistan Syria Vietnam Japan Iraq Canada Greece Somalia Palestine Sri Lanka and America The borders that displaced mothers face are examined through frameworks of postcolonialism nationalism feminism and diaspora studies Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin,2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women s writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women s resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996 written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women s self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their hi stories Although the texts form part of separate discourses the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes re constructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood The book shows that in the womens revisions of national history their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly The study s engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro Cuban women writers and Afro Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars In this sense the book includes some of the writers own commentaries about their work taken from interviews many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmart n herself as well as critical essays and letters Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers Paula Sanmart n s study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies African American studies Afro Latin American and Afro Caribbean studies women s studies genre studies and slavery studies Rebels Leerom Medovoi,2005-11-23 A cultural history of the political legitimization of youth rebellion during the Cold War era Mothershift Jessie Harrold, 2024-11-12 Explore this supportive grounding guide for new mothers navigating the cascade of identity change and transformation that is motherhood Our modern Western societal understanding of what happens to a woman when she becomes a mother beyond emotional rollercoasters and healing her pelvic floor remains largely uncharted territory The transition to motherhood actually takes two to three years not six weeks or three months as we've been led to believe Mothershift offers a supportive affirming road map to take women through this transformational process Jessie Harrold introduces her map for your becoming a research based four phase model that maps out how the transition to motherhood unfolds and helps women to navigate every step along the way She has used this model to guide thousands of women through the shift into motherhood Harrold also includes self inquiry questions and journal prompts in each chapter to help women identify and thrive amidst the cascade of changes they can expect as they enter motherhood Topics include Normalizing the feelings of grief and loss of self you may feel along the way Navigating the discomfort of not knowing who you are anymore now that you're a mother Guiding you to cultivate a sense of empowerment and leadership in motherhood showing you how mothering is a counterculture act Showing you how to use the superpowers that motherhood can offer self tending creativity embodiment ritual community inner knowing and earth connection Gently guiding you to explore who you are becoming Screening Motherhood in Contemporary World Cinema Asma Sayed, 2016-02-01 Using a variety of critical and theoretical approaches the contributing scholars to this collection analyze culturally specific and globally held attitudes about mothers and mothering as represented in world cinema Examining films from a range of countries including Afghanistan India Iran Eastern Europe Canada and the United States the various chapters contextualize the socio cultural realities of motherhood as they are represented on screen and explore the maternal figure as she has been glamorized and celebrated while simultaneously subjected to public scrutiny Collectively this scholarly investigation provides insights into where women's struggles converge while also highlighting the dramatically different realities of women around the globe Rebel Moms Davina Rhine, 2011-11-18 Modern motherhood has changed it isn't just frilly aprons mini vans and soccer practice anymore You are a modern moma rebel mom ready to raise your kids while running a successful business starting a band or finding your voice while doing the things you love and fighting for what's right Even so the path to epic mom rebellion is not always easy Meet the women who have seen conquered and survived making a difference doing things their own way and on their own terms They are activists teachers veterans firefighters pin ups fast food workers tattoo artists and more A rebel mom has no set definition beyond her tendency to elude definition These women from varying places and backgrounds have seen it all divorce abuse depression and disability They have succeeded and raised children with tough grins on their faces Are you a new or expecting mother Are you a mother who's fed up with the super mom super woman myth Or are you a pro who's been there and done that but would still love to learn from other rebel moms It's never too late to learn a new trick and motherhood is never the same for anyone Cultures change as do child rearing practices but certain aspects of being a mom are universal and timeless love support and strength The rebel moms have mastered the art of motherhood and you can embrace the revolution
