The Politics of Space in Contemporary Australian Aboriginal Art Daniela Gisela Limpert, 2011 Master's Thesis from the year 2011 in the subject Communications Intercultural Communication grade 1-2 University of Kaiserslautern language English abstract Politics of Space's idea is to present a body of work that addresses some of the key questions that have held my attention over several years in relation to the nature and peculiar concerns of contemporary non-Western art especially on how Contemporary Australian Aboriginal Art is perceived, received and read in significant parts of the public where cross-cultural exchange occurs. Significant areas of research in relation to Contemporary Indigenous Art are not only certain institutions within the art world such as art centres, art galleries and museums but also public areas like universities, government bureaus and particularly touristic institutions as a vast majority of non-indigenous people experience non-Western art in this context only.

The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages Claire Bowern, 2023-06-19 The Oxford Guide to Australian Languages is a wide-ranging reference work that explores the more than 550 traditional and new Indigenous languages of Australia. Australian languages have long played an important role in diachronic and synchronic linguistics and are a vital testing ground for linguistic theory. Until now, however, there has been no comprehensive and accessible guide to their vast linguistic diversity. This volume fills that gap, bringing together leading scholars and junior researchers to provide an up-to-date guide to all aspects of the languages of Australia. The chapters in the book explore typology, documentation and classification, linguistic structures from phonology to pragmatics and discourse, sociolinguistics and language variation, and language in the community. The final part offers grammatical sketches of a selection of languages, subgroups and families. At a time when the number of living Australian languages is significantly reduced, even compared to twenty years ago, this volume establishes priorities for future linguistic research and contributes to the language expansion and revitalization efforts that are underway.
