mapping of Gitano marriage law is grounded in ethnographic fieldwork in Andalucia The study draws initially from the tradition of comparative law to focus on the emergence of Spanish state family law in a predominantly national and international context Drummond then adopts the role of legal anthropologist to examine a particular legal culture that exists within and also beyond the Spanish state that of the Gitanos and the transnational Roma Ultimately she brings the international national and cultural dimensions of law into play with one another and contemplates how all of these influences bear on the spirit of Andalusian Gitano marriage law The result is an ethos of marriage law in a thoroughly mixed legal jurisdiction Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities will appeal to scholars and students in comparative law and legal anthropology as well as readers interested in Roma studies in general and the Gitanos in particular Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities Susan Drummond, 2011-11-01 Comparative law and legal anthropology have traditionally restricted themselves to their own fields of inquiry Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities turns this tendency on its head and investigates what happens when the voices of each discipline are invited to speak to each other Susan Drummond forges this hybrid form of comparative work through small and large scale studies of Gitano marriage law as it emerges in a Western European state in a modern urban centre and in particular communities and families Drummond's mapping of Gitano marriage law is grounded in ethnographic fieldwork in Andalucia The study draws initially from the tradition of comparative law to focus on the emergence of Spanish state family law in a predominantly national and international context Drummond then adopts the role of legal anthropologist to examine a particular legal culture that exists within and also beyond the Spanish state that of the Gitanos and the transnational Roma Ultimately she brings the international national and cultural dimensions of law into play with one another and contemplates how all of these influences bear on the spirit of Andalusian Gitano marriage law The result is an ethos of marriage law in a thoroughly mixed legal jurisdiction Mapping Marriage Law in Spanish Gitano Communities will appeal to scholars and students in comparative law and legal anthropology as well as readers interested in Roma studies in general and the Gitanos in particular New York Magazine, 1980-07-28 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Web as History Niels Brügger, Ralph Schroeder, 2017-03-06 The World Wide Web has now been in use for more than 20 years From early browsers to today's principal source of information entertainment and much else the Web is an integral part of our daily lives to the extent that some people believe if it's not online it doesn't exist While this statement is not entirely true it is becoming increasingly accurate and reflects the Web's role as an indispensable treasure trove It is curious therefore that historians and social scientists have thus far made little use of the Web to investigate historical
