The Cutter's Practical Guide, Part 2 W. D. F. Vincent, 2025-08-11 The Cutter's Practical Guide being the present acknowledged Standard System of Cutting at the Tailor and Cutter Office and the System taught to the Students at our Academy it has in a variety of forms and adaptations been laid before the members of the tailoring trade The cordial reception it has met has induced us to develop both the System and its applications and prepare these for publication in more permanent form Part One has already appeared in which the System is adapted more particularly to Youths and Juvenile Garments A promise was then made that Part Two embracing every Style and Class of Gents Body Coats would ultimately be published The present work will be valued not only for its application to ordinary coats but by many more because it embraces many garments which in most trades are regarded special and unusual Among these we may reckon Military Naval and Livery garments with other classes of official and non official dress which the head of every respectable firm is liable to be called upon to make The work throughout will be found thoroughly practical in its mode of representing and dealing with the various styles and classes of garments Everything superfluous is studiously avoided The work is prepared for practical Cutters and for everyday use which will be greatly facilitated by the large clear type and equally clear engraving of the Plates We feel confidence in placing it in the hands of our many patrons
