Imperialism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 2003-08-29 Imperialism in Southeast Asia examines its subject against a backdrop of those countries that could at a given time be called imperialist Britain France Spain the Netherlands and the US Examining the imperialist phenomenon from this wide ranging perspective reveals imperialism as driven by rivalry it also facilitates comparison imperialism has elements in common yet differs according to the territory in which it operates This is one of the few studies of imperialism to concentrate on Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling's definition of imperialism focuses on the establishment of political control from 1870 to 1914 Moving forward in time the author analyses attempts to re establish control after the overthrow of imperial regimes in the Second World War Most recently Southeast Asia has become a region of independent states and Tarling discusses imperial ventures as forms of state building At the same time his discussion reflects another contemporary concern globalisation and the relationship of the state to that process Nicolas Tarling is an eminent writer in Asian history His latest book will be of great interest to all those studying or involved in Asian studies history and politics

South East Asia, Colonial History: High imperialism (1890s-1930s) Paul H. Kratoska, 2001 The six volumes that make up this unique set provide an extensive overview of colonialism in South East Asia In the majority of cases authors chosen were specialists writing about their individual areas of expertise and had first hand experience in the region Outline of contents I Imperialism before 1800 Edited by Peter Borschberg II Empire Building in the Nineteenth Century III High Imperialism IV Imperial Decline Nationalism and the Japanese Challenge V Peaceful Transitions to Independence VI Independence through Violent Struggle Southeast Asia Cruising Guide Volume II Elaine

Morgan, 2019-01-01 The only guide to Southeast Asia that covers the entire length and breadth of a region frequently visited by round the world sailors many of whom leave Australia to head west This 2008 edition concentrates on the most frequented routes and includes the most popular stops There are hundreds of possible anchorages the most popular of which are usefully summarised in tables Introductory sections cover planning and the last part of the book deals with more general topics including advice on provisioning and the problems that are often faced by cruisers Stephen Morgan and Elaine Davies first arrived in the region over 30 years ago They work in Hong Kong Stephen Davies as Director of the Hong Kong Maritime Museum and Elaine Morgan as a writer and editor While this pilot is aimed at yachtsmen and indeed was surveyed from the Davies Morgan yacht it is just as relevant to the commercial or military mariner The part of the world described in this work is one of the most interesting on our planet Culturally scenically climatically and commercially it has everything This excellent book now in its second edition describes it all very enticingly Set to the usual high standard of the Imray pilots that precede it this one is spiced up by the wit and anecdotes the authors are so good at Secularism, Decolonisation, and the Cold War in South and Southeast Asia Clemens Six, 2017-07-20 The intensifying conflicts between religious communities in contemporary South and Southeast Asia signify the importance of gaining a clearer understanding of how societies have historically organised and mastered their religious diversity Based on extensive archival research in Asia Europe and the United States this book suggests a new approach to interpreting and explaining secularism not as a Western concept but as a distinct form of practice in 20th century global history In six case studies on the contemporary history of India Indonesia Malaysia and Singapore it analyses secularism as a project to create a high degree of distance between the state and religion during the era of decolonisation and the emerging Cold War between 1945 and 1970 To demonstrate the interplay between local and transnational dynamics the case studies look at patterns of urban planning the struggle against religious nationalism conflicts around religious education and anti communism as a dispute over secularism and social reform The book emphasises in particular the role of non state actors as key supporters of secular statehood a role that has thus far not received sufficient attention A novel approach to studying secularism in Asia the book discusses the different ways that global transformations such as decolonisation and the Cold War interacted with local relations to reshape and relocate religion in society It will be of interest to scholars of Religious Studies International Relations and Politics Studies of Empire Cold War Studies Subaltern Studies Modern Asian History and South and Southeast Asian Studies Nationalism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 2004-08-02 Nationalism in Southeast Asia seeks a definition of nationalism through examining its role in the history of southeast Asia a region rarely included in general books on the topic By developing such a definition and testing it out Tarling hopes at the same time to make a contribution to southeast Asian historiography and to limit its ghettoization Tarling considers the role of nationalism in the nation building of the post colonial phase and its relationship both with the democratic aspirations associated with the winning of independence and with the authoritarianism of the closing decades of the 20th century Study Guide for World History II Stephanie E. Merritt, United States Armed Forces Institute, 1956 Subject Guide to Books in Print , 1983 Malaysia and the Developing World Jan Stark, 2013-01-25 As Malaysia s economy grows and flourishes strong new links are being forged with other developing countries in the region and beyond This book traces the ways in which age old organizational political religious and trade networks between Nusantara the Malay World and Central Asia East Africa and the Middle East have changed in recent years The book argues that these old links are being revived by new forms of globalization modernization and knowledge transfer that are developing and implementing non western models of governance often in direct reference to Islam The book goes on to explain how as Malaysia develops new links with Indian Ocean countries many of them Muslim countries a new style trading network is being formed a network with Islamic characteristics which echoes Indian Ocean Islamic trading networks of earlier times Interspersed with interesting methodological insights into the latest network transnational and spatial theories the book provides detailed case studies of Malaysia s and Southeast Asia s trade and numerous other links with Indonesia Egypt Zanzibar Comoros and Central Asia and concludes by assessing how Malaysia s and ASEAN s new style network is likely to develop and influence wider global networks Written with a depth of knowledge reflective of the author s many years of research throughout Asia this book gives a real insight into how Malaysia's mentalities traditions and ways of thinking are being applied to its interactions with its immediate neighbours and the wider world Imperialism in British Imperialism P.J. Cain,A. G. Hopkins,2014-01-14 A milestone in the understanding of British history and imperialism and truly global in its reach this magisterial account received numerous accolades from reviewers in its first edition The first to coin the phrase gentlemanly capitalism Cain and Hopkins make the strong and provocative argument that it is impossible to understand the nature and evolution of British imperialism without taking account of the peculiarities of her economic development In particular the growth of the financial sector and above all the City of London played a crucial role in shaping the course of British history and Britain s relations overseas Now with a substantive new introduction and a conclusion the scope of the original account has been widened to include an innovative discussion of globalization

Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1965-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Italians in Africa and the Japanese in South East Asia Nikolaos Mavropoulos,2022-08-22 The comparison of early Italy s and Japan s colonialism is without precedence The majority of studies on Italian and Japanese expansion refer to the 1930 1940s period fascist totalitarian era when Japan annexed Manchuria 1931 and Italy Ethiopia 1936 The first formative and crucial steps that paved the way for this expansion have been neglected This analysis covers a range of social political and economic parameters illuminating the diversity but also the common ground of the nature and aspirations of Japan s and Italy s early colonial systems The two states alongside the Great Powers of the era expanded in the name of humanism and civilization but in reality in a way typically imperialistic they sought territorial compensations financial privileges and prestige A parallel and deeper understanding of the nineteenth century socio cultural psychological parameters such as tradition mentality and religion that shaped and explain the later ideological framework of Rome s and T ky s expansionist disposition has never been attempted before This monograph offers a detailed examination of the phenomenon of colonialism by examining the issue from two different angles The study contributes to the understanding of Italy s and Japan s early imperial expansion In addition it traces the origins of these states similar and common historical evolution in late nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century Pedagogies of Globalization Joel Spring,2012-10-12 In this ground breaking book Joel Spring examines globalization and its worldwide effects on education A central thesis is that industrial consumerism is the dominant paradigm in the integration of education and economic planning in modern economic security states In the twenty first century national school systems have similar grades and promotion plans instructional methods curriculum organization and linkages between secondary and higher education Although there are local variations the most striking feature is the sameness of educational systems How did this happen How was education globalized Spring explains and analyzes this phenomenon and its consequences for human life and the future improvement of social and economic organizations Central themes include the elements of the educational security state and the industrial consumer paradigm in relationship to classical forms of education such as Confucianism Islam and Christianity and their concerns with creating a just and ethical society the role of the other in the globalization of educational structures as international military and economic rivalries spark competition between educational systems the transition from the Confucian village school to Western forms of education as exemplified in the lives of Ho Chi Minh and Mao Zedong the effect of the cultural and economic rivalry between the Soviet Union and the United States and its impact on schooling in both countries the rise of the educational security state in China the Soviet Union and the United States as these countries focus their educational efforts on military and economic development the evolution of progressive education as it appeared in revolutionary movements in South America Cuba Nicaragua and El Salvador the transition from traditional to Westernized forms of Islamic education against the background of European imperialism Arab nationalism and wars of liberation and the uneasy tension between Western educational ideals and Islamic religious values socialist education in the Democratic People's Republic of Korea current developments in educational security states such as China Japan the United States the new Russia and the European Union and the consequences of English as the global language and the global spread of the industrial consumer paradigm Readership for this book includes scholars and students in comparative international and multicultural education educational policy and politics historical social and philosophical foundations of education and curriculum studies It is a particularly timely informative engaging text for courses in all of these areas John F. Kennedy and the New Pacific Community, 1961-63 Timothy P. Maga, 2011-01-01 Charismatic and committed John F Kennedy remains one of the most revered and most disliked of US Presidents Dedicated to changing the look of the American Presidency Kennedy was also pledged to changing the nature of US foreign policy making Victory in the Cold War was possible he said and the greatest challenge to that victory was in the Asian Pacific region Success there would signal the end of the communist versus capitalist confrontation America can do it he vowed This book describes the Kennedy administration's desperate efforts to achieve the impossible dream an American Cold War victory throughout Asia and the Pacific Film and the End of Empire Lee Grieveson, Colin MacCabe, 2017-10-23 In these two volumes of original essays scholars from around the world address the history of British colonial cinema stretching from the emergence of cinema at the height of imperialism to moments of decolonization and the ending of formal imperialism in the post Second World War
