Devine, CM, 2004-09-01 Good Care Painful Choices surveys the ethical decisions that must be made by ordinary people who deal with medicine today ranging from beginning life issues such as test tube babies and surrogate motherhood to end of life issues such as advance directives patient refusal of treatment and physician assisted suicide This third edition gives special attention to partial birth abortion and to recent discoveries in genetics involving stem cells cloning and eugenics The strength of the book comes from its foundation in basic moral principles that stress personhood moral decision making and conscience Decidedly Christian the book gives special emphasis to the Roman Catholic tradition It will be welcomed by Catholics by Christians of all denominations and by anyone interested in a careful overview of contemporary medical ethics BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      Conscience in Conflict Kenneth R. Morris, 2007-04 From its earliest beginnings the Catholic Church has cared for the sick and dying of the world as an extension of the healing ministry of Jesus As a natural consequence Catholics have regularly addressed moral issues relating to health care long before the term bioethics was coined Beginning with a deeply nuanced holistic understanding of the human person as their foundation Catholic scholars have developed a person centered ethic with which to approach ethical dilemmas that is understandable and defensible in the light of natural human reason yet which is compatible with the teachings and doctrine of the Church emphasizing the harmony of faith and reason within the Catholic moral tradition Medicine Health Care and Ethics adds to this rich tradition with a collection of contemporary essays that represent the very best efforts of current Catholic scholarship in the field of health care and medical ethics The book begins with an introductory section that explains the basic foundations of the personalist approach to ethics and its development within Catholic thought The remaining parts of the book address timely topics such as artificial reproduction contraception abortion euthanasia genetic engineering stem cell research cloning and health care reform Each author brings a fresh perspective and a wealth of knowledge on these issues that will benefit Catholics as well as non Catholics With general overviews for each section and topic specific bibliographies to guide further study this volume is designed to provide a greater understanding and deeper appreciation of the Catholic perspective on health care and medicine for both newcomers and seasoned students of bioethics alike In today's culture of pluralism and diversity the Catholic tradition has much wisdom to contribute to society's consideration of contemporary problems in medicine and health care This collection of essays is offered in the spirit of open and honest dialogue for all who are seeking to understand that tradition ABOUT THE EDITOR John F Morris associate professor of philosophy at Rockhurst University has published numerous articles on the subject of medical ethics In addition to Morris contributors to the volume are Benedict M Ashley O P Gregory R Beabout John Berkman Clarke E Cochran Catherine Green John F Kavanaugh S J William E May Kevin O Rourke O P Michael D Place Jeanne Schindler and Brendan Sweetman PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Morris intends his book to be used as a supplementary text for courses in bioethics and by members of hospital ethics committees A number of the volume's features recommend it for these audiences Each of the 5 parts of the book has an introduction that is informative lucid and relatively comprehensive These introductions offer an overview of the issue or issues addressed by the essays and briefly describe each presentation Unlike so many collections of multiauthored essays this volume's offerings are consistent in quality and are accessible to the readers for whom they are intended Finally each part of the book concludes with a short but helpful bibliography for further reading or research These qualities of the book recommend it not only for the audiences for which it is intended but also for all educated laypersons clergy and health care professionals who are interested in learning more about a Catholic approach to a variety of controversial issues in bioethics In all likelihood readers will also come away with some valuable insights and wisdom contained in the Catholic tradition and will acquire a better appreciation of the contribution of Catholic voices to debates in bioethics The excellent section introductions and the high quality of each of the essays make this volume a must for anyone wishing to better understand a traditional Catholic approach to bioethics Ronald P Hame      Ethics in Health Care Silvia Angelina Pera, Susara Van Tonder, 2005 Dealing primarily with nursing in South Africa and the particular challenges that the country's nurses encounter this book looks at the ethical questions confronting nurses as well as the moral philosophy behind those considerations Ubuntu the African notion that everyone in a community is responsible for the welfare of its members plays a large part in the moral deliberations of the book as do problems particular to South Africa This second edition is updated with new case studies on the AIDS pandemic as well as new ethical questions stemming from the legalization of abortion in South Africa and the rise in the power of health worker unions      Dying and Death Asa Kasher, 2007 Death is a topic people are reluctant to ponder Neither is dying a process that is usually being openly discussed However on a variety of occasions dying and death are on a person's mind under some sensitive circumstances he or she are eager to discuss with a close person a friend a professional The present volume the second in the Series on Dying and Death is meant to enrich personal experience of dying or death by providing its reader with knowledge and understanding of some aspects of dying or death Section 1 describes practices of mourning in different times and places USA during the Civil War Ashley Byock the Island of Viz between Croatia and Italy Kathleen Young present day Israel Asa Kasher medieval Serbia Mira Crouch and post
