Good To Eat Riddles Of Food And Culture:

Good to Eat Marvin Harris, 1998-07-02 Why are human food habits so diverse Why do Americans recoil at the thought of dog meat Jews and Moslems pork Hindus beef Why do Asians abhor milk In Good to Eat best selling author Marvin Harris leads readers on an informative detective adventure to solve the worlds major food puzzles He explains the diversity of the worlds gastronomic customs demonstrating that what appear at first glance to be irrational food tastes turn out really to have been shaped by practical economic or political necessity In addition his smart and spirited treatment sheds wisdom on such topics as why there has been an explosion in fast food why history indicates that its bad to eat people but good to kill them and why children universally reject spinach Good to Eat is more than an intellectual adventure in food for thought It is a highly readable scientifically accurate and fascinating work that demystifies the causes of myriad human cultural differences

Good to Eat Marvin Harris, 2005 Why are human food habits so diverse Anthropologist Marvin Harris thinks that something beyond mere digestive philosophy is shaping the definition of what we like This intelligent and amusing series of detective stories deals with many unexplained riddles of food and culture

Making Food in Local and Global Contexts Atsushi Nobayashi, 2022-06-21 This book is a collection of research focusing on the anthropological aspects of how food is made in modern society from both global and local perspectives Modern food consumed in any society is created in a variety of natural and cultural environments There is a food democracy in which how we procure and share food can be an indicator of our participation in society while food nurtured in particular climates and land can be transmitted to the outside world owing to the influence of tourism and the global economy a phenomenon that is recognized on a global scale as exemplified by the UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage In other words food is an aspect of both culture and civilization Anthropological approaches are used to reveal the humanistic aspects of food highlighting the strength and individuality of regional and ethnic foods in global civilizations The book is a compilation of results from sessions of the international symposium Making Food in Human and Natural History which took place on March 18 and 19 2019 in Osaka Japan

Plants and People Alexandre Chevalier, Elena Marinova, Leonor Pena-Chocarro, 2014-04-30 This first monograph in the EARTH The Dynamics of Non Industrial Agriculture 8 000 years of Resilience and Innovation series approaches the great variety of agricultural practices in human terms It focuses on the relationship between plants and people the complexity of agricultural processes and their organisation within particular communities and societies Collaborative European research among archaeologists archaeobotanists ethnographers historians and agronomists using a broad analytical scale of investigation seeks to establish new common ground for integrating different approaches By means of interdisciplinary examples this book showcases the relationship between people and plants across wide ranging and diverse spatial and temporal milieus including crop diversity the use of wild foodstuffs social context status and choices of food plants

Global Jewish Foodways Hasia R. Diner, Simone Cinotto, 2018-06 The history of the Jewish people has been a history of migration Although Jews invariably brought with them their traditional ideas about food during these migrations just as invariably they engaged with the foods they encountered in their new environments Their culinary habits changed as a result of both these migrations and the new political and social realities they encountered The stories in this volume examine the sometimes bewildering kaleidoscope of food experiences generated by new social contacts trade political revolutions wars and migrations both voluntary and compelled This panoramic history of Jewish food highlights its breadth and depth on a global scale from Renaissance Italy to the post World War II era in Israel Argentina and the United States and critically examines the impact of food on Jewish lives and on the complex set of laws practices and procedures that constitutes the Jewish dietary system and regulates what can be eaten when how and with whom Global Jewish Foodways offers a fresh perspective on how historical changes through migration settlement and accommodation transformed Jewish food and customs
