Hip Hop In American Cinema:

Hip Hop in American Cinema Melvin Burke Donalson, 2007 Hip Hop in American Cinema examines the manner in which American feature films have served as the primary medium for mainstreaming hip hop culture into American society With their glamorizing portrayals of graffiti writing break dancing rap music clothing and language Hollywood movies have established hip hop as a desirable youth movement This book demonstrates how Hollywood studios and producers have exploited the profitable connection among rappers soundtracks and mass audiences Hip Hop in American Cinema offers valuable information for courses in film studies popular culture and American studies Representing S. Craig Watkins, 1998 Representing examines developments in black cinema It looks at the distinct contradiction in American society black youths have become targets of a racial backlash but their popular cultures have become commercially viable

Contemporary American Cinema Williams , Linda Ruth, Hammond , Michael, 2006-05-01 This is a comprehensive introduction to post classical American film Covering American cinema since 1960 the text looks at both Hollywood and non mainstream cinema American Cinema of the 1990s Chris Holmlund, 2008-10-11 With the U S economy booming under President Bill Clinton and the cold war finally over many Americans experienced peace and prosperity in the nineties Digital technologies gained popularity with nearly one billion people online by the end of the decade The film industry wondered what the effect on cinema would be The essays in American Cinema of the 1990s examine the big budget blockbusters and critically acclaimed independent films that defined the decade The 1990s most popular genre action channeled anxieties about global threats such as AIDS and foreign terrorist attacks into escapist entertainment movies Horror films and thrillers were on the rise but family friendly pictures and feel good romances netted big audiences too Meanwhile independent films captured hearts engaged minds and invaded Hollywood by decade s end every studio boasted its own art film affiliate

The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venise T. Berry, 2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson s victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, 2018-04-12 Winner RUSA 2019 Outstanding References Source Winner and named a Library Journal Best Reference Book of the Year 2018 From D W Griffith s Birth of a Nation in 1915 to the recent Get Out audiences and critics alike have responded to racism in motion pictures for more than a century Whether subtle or blatant racially biased images and narratives erase minorities perpetuate stereotypes and keep alive practices of discrimination and marginalization Even in the 21st century the American film industry is not color blind evidenced by films such as Babel 2006 A Better Life 2011 and 12 Years a Slave 2013 The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Film documents one facet of racism in the film industry wherein historically underrepresented peoples are misrepresented through a lack of roles for actors of color stereotyping negative associations and an absence of rich nuanced characters Offering insights and analysis from over seventy scholars critics and activists the volume highlights issues such as Hollywood s diversity crisis White Savior films Magic Negro tropes The disconnect between screen images and lived realities of African Americans Latinos Native Americans and Asians A companion to the ever growing field of race studies this volume opens up a critical dialogue on an always timely issue The Encyclopedia of Racism in American Film will appeal to scholars of cinema race and ethnicity studies and cultural history

The City in American Cinema Johan Andersson, Lawrence Webb, 2019-06-27 How has American cinema engaged with the rapid transformation of cities and urban culture since the 1960s And what role have films and film industries played in shaping and mediating the postindustrial city This collection argues that cinema and cities have become increasingly intertwined in the era of neoliberalism urban branding and accelerated gentrification Examining a wide range of films from Hollywood blockbusters to indie cinema it considers the complex evolving relationship between moving image cultures and the spaces policies and politics of US cities from New York Los Angeles and Boston to Detroit Oakland and Baltimore The contributors address questions of narrative genre and style alongside the urban contexts of production exhibition and reception discussing films including The Friends of Eddie Coyle 1973 Cruising 1980 Desperately Seeking Susan 1985 King of New York 1990 Inception 2010 Frances Ha 2012 Fruitvale Station 2013 Only Lovers Left Alive 2013 and Doctor Strange 2016

Black Hollywood Kimberly Fain, 2015-06-30 This thought provoking work examines the dehumanizing depictions of black males in the movies since 1910 analyzing images that were once imposed on black men and are now appropriated and manipulated by them Moving through cinematic history decade by decade since 1910 this important volume explores the appropriation exploitation and agency of black performers in Hollywood by looking at the black actors directors and producers who have shaped the image of African American males in film To determine how these archetypes differentiate African American males in the public's subconscious the book asks probing questions for example whether these images are a reflection of society's fears or realistic depictions of a pluralistic America Even as the work acknowledges the controversial history of black representation in film it also celebrates the success stories of blacks in the industry It shows how blacks in Hollywood manipulate degrading stereotypes gain control advance their careers and earn money while making social statements or bringing about changes in culture It discusses how social activist performers such as Paul Robeson Sidney Poitier Harry Belafonte and Spike Lee reflect political and social movements in their movies and it reviews the interactions between black actors and their white counterparts to analyze how black males express their heritage individual identity and social issues through film

Shaping the Future of African American Film Monica White Ndounou, 2014-04-29 In Hollywood we hear it's all about the money It's a ready explanation for why so few black films get made no crossover appeal no promise of a big payoff But what if the money itself is color coded What if the economics that governs film production is so skewed that no film by or for people of color will ever look like a worthy investment unless it follows specific racial or gender patterns This Monica Ndounou shows us is precisely the case In a work as revealing about the culture of filmmaking as it is about the distorted economics of African American film Ndounou clearly traces the insidious connections between history content and cash in black films How does history come into it Hollywood's reliance on past performance as a measure of potential success virtually guarantees that historically underrepresented underfunded and undersold African American films devalue the future prospects of black films So the cycle continues as it has for nearly a century Behind the scenes the numbers are far from neutral Analyzing the onscreen narratives and off screen circumstances behind nearly two thousand films featuring African Americans in leading and supporting roles including such recent productions as Bamboozled Beloved and Tyler Perry's Diary of a Mad Black Woman Ndounou exposes the cultural and racial constraints that limit not just the production but also the expression and creative freedom of black films Her wide ranging analysis reaches into questions of literature language speech and dialect film images and narrative acting theater and film business practices production history and financing and organizational history By uncovering the ideology behind profit driven industry practices that reshape narratives by or for people of color this provocative work brings to light existing limitations and possibilities for reworking stories and business practices in theater literature and film
