Phenomenal Blackness Mark Christian Thompson, 2022-01-21 This unorthodox account of 1960s Black thought rigorously details the field's debts to German critical theory and explores a forgotten tradition of Black singularity Phenomenal Blackness examines the changing interdisciplinary investments of key mid century Black writers and thinkers including the growing interest in German philosophy and critical theory Mark Christian Thompson analyzes this shift in intellectual focus across the post war decades placing Black Power thought in a philosophical context Prior to the 1960s sociologically oriented thinkers such as W E B Du Bois had understood Blackness as a singular set of socio historical characteristics In contrast writers such as Amiri Baraka James Baldwin Angela Y Davis Eldridge Cleaver and Malcolm X were drawn to notions of an African essence an ontology of Black being With these perspectives literary language came to be seen as the primary social expression of Blackness For this new way of thinking the works of philosophers such as Adorno Habermas and Marcuse were a vital resource allowing for continued cultural materialist analysis while accommodating the hermeneutical aspects of Black religious thought Thompson argues that these efforts to reimagine Black singularity led to a phenomenological understanding of Blackness a Black aesthetic dimension wherein aspirational models for Black liberation might emerge

Rewriting Revolution Immanuel Kim, 2018-04-30 North Korea the Democratic People's Republic of Korea DPRK is firmly fixed in the Western imagination as a barbaric vestige of the Cold War a rogue nation that refuses to abide by international norms It is seen as belligerent and oppressive a poor nation bent on depriving its citizens of their basic human rights and expanding its nuclear weapons program at the expense of a faltering economy Even the North's literary output is stigmatized and dismissed as mere propaganda literature praising the Great Leader Immanuel Kim's book confronts these stereotypes offering a more complex portrayal of literature in the North based on writings from the 1960s to the present The state seeking to write revolution prescribes grand narratives populated with characters motivated by their political commitments to the leader the Party the nation and the collective While acknowledging these qualities Kim argues for deeper readings In some novels and stories he finds the path to becoming a revolutionary hero or heroine is no longer a simple matter of formulaic plot progression instead it is challenged disrupted and questioned by individual desires doubts and imaginations Fiction in the 1980s in particular exhibits refreshing story lines and deeper character development along with creative approaches to delineating women sexuality and the family These changes are so striking that they have ushered in what Kim calls a Golden Age of North Korean fiction Rewriting Revolution charts the insightful literary frontiers that critically portray individuals negotiating their political and sexual identities in a revolutionary state In this fresh and thought provoking analysis of North Korean fiction Kim looks past the ostensible state propaganda to explore the dynamic literary

The religion of old glory W.N. Guthrie, One LORD ray brown, 2021-01-13 This manuscript is birthed out of my personal Bible study and inquiry into the identity and characteristics of God specifically what I sometimes call the plurality and the oneness nature of God For he is indubitably both This book attempts to objectively examine the primary doctrines that have plagued and fragmented Christianity and especially the man made dogma and tenets which divide Pentecostal Christianity The emphasis throughout is explicitly upon God s desire for the unity of the Spirit and upon his own indivisible character and essence A distinct significance is placed upon the high priestly prayer of the LORD Jesus Christ for all of Christianity that we not only be made One with him in the Father by the Holy Spirit but that we be made progressively perfect in One re John 17 21 23 It is my hope that this work awakens an awareness in all of God s people of his grief and displeasure at our divisive posture and alienating attitudes toward those who believe differently than we do Categorically I address the doctrines of the oneness and trinity of God and the differences we have concerning water baptism that have so sorrowfully and shamefully separated us My hope and my prayer for this book is that it be a unifying catalyst in the heart of the individual believer to draw us closer as the body of Christ his Church one Christian at a time My aspiration in Christ is to accentuate the gravity and the urgency that the LORD Jesus Christ does not find us in such a state of glaring and disgraceful disunity at his coming Someone has to say it and this book without apology does just that
