Historic Kilsyth Elizabeth Patricia Dennison, 2006 Charts the developemt of the historic town of Kilsyth from the scatter of ferm touns in the area in the late 1500s through to the elevation of Kilsyth to a burgh of barony in 1620 and the subsequent expansion of the new town serving as a market and a centre of the textile industry Part of the Scottish Burgh Survey a series designed to identify the archaeological potential of Scotland s historic towns Historic Rutherglen Robert Gourlay, Anne Turner Simpson, Scottish Burgh Survey, 1978 Historic Fraserburgh Richard D. Oram, Ali Cathcart, Paula Martin, Charles McKean, Tim Neighbour, 2010 Part of the Scottish Burgh Survey designed to identify the archaeological potential of Scotland s historic towns the book examines Fraserburgh s historic development from the late medieval period to its heyday as a fishing port in the early twentieth century Historic Wigtown Richard D. Oram, Paula Martin, Charles McKean, Sue Anderson, 2014 Situated in what now seems a remote corner of south west Scotland Wigtown was once an important county town With its harbour and location at the lowest fording point of the River Cree Wigtown was at one time part of a major network of land and sea routes including a pilgrim route to Whithorn The layout of the town is notable for its large market square a reflection of its importance in the cattle trade in the medieval period The town achieved burgh status in the thirteenth century by which time it was an important trading centre and the present arrangement of streets and burgage plots dates to this time Today the principal access route is from the north rather than through the East and West Ports which controlled access to the great market place The burgh arms depict a three masted sailing ship demonstrating the importance placed on its maritime trade This book examines both the town s political history as it passed between the earldoms of Wigtown and Douglas and its economic history as it competed with Whithorn before its eventual decline in the later nineteenth century The authors use the surviving buildings to examine the development of the town from the medieval to the modern period This book is part of the Scottish Burgh Survey a series funded by Historic Scotland designed to identify the archaeological potential of Scotland's historic towns Historic Kirkcaldy Elizabeth Patricia Dennison, Russel Coleman, 1995 Historic Stornoway Elizabeth Patricia Dennison, Russel Coleman, 1997-01-01 Historic Kilmarnock Anne Turner Simpson, Sylvia J.
