The Georgia Catalog, Historic American Buildings Survey John Linley,1982 From the elegant townhouses of Savannah to the towering hotel and office complexes of Atlanta the state of Georgia has a distinguished architectural tradition No other work documents this rich heritage as comprehensively as The Georgia Catalog Prepared under the auspices of the Historic American Buildings Survey this carefully researched and beautifully illustrated volume will be an invaluable resource for architects preservationists historians and those who own the historic houses or who simply are interested in Georgia s architectural legacy The book is in two parts The first is a history of and guide to the architecture of the state John Linley begins his survey with the remains of prehistoric civilization and the architecture of the first European settlers He traces the development of a native architecture in the state the flowering of the Greek Revival style the functional architecture of commerce and industry and the energy and imagination of urban architecture in the late twentieth century The text reflects the author s interest in the rationale and logic that produced the architecture and in the lessons that the past has for the present and the future He also emphasizes the influence of climate ecology landscape and city planning on both historic and contemporary architecture The second section of The Georgia Catalog is a complete updated listing of nearly four hundred sites in the Historic American Buildings Survey Each entry gives the precise location of the site a brief description of the structure the date of construction and the name of the architect if known changes in name structure or location of the building its present condition any facts of historical significance and the number and dates of drawings photographs and data sheets in the HABS collection at the Library of Congress To add to its value as a guide the volume also includes a glossary of architectural terms and a list of Georgia properties that are included in the National Register of Historic Places have been designated National Landmarks or are part of the Historic American Engineering Record

Show Thyself a Man Gregory Mixon,2024-03-26 Georgia Historical Records Advisory Council award for Excellence in Research in Using the Holdings of Archives The history of Black militias in Georgia after the Civil War and their importance in defining citizenship In Show Thyself a Man Gregory Mixon explores the ways in which African Americans in postbellum Georgia used militia service after the Civil War to define freedom and citizenship Independent militias empowered them to get involved in politics secure their own financial independence and mobilize for self defense As whites and blacks competed for state sponsorship of their militia companies African Americans sought to establish their roles as citizens of their country and their state They proved their efficiency as militiamen and publicly commemorated black freedom and progress with celebrations such as Emancipation Day and the anniversaries of the Civil War Amendments White Georgians however used the militia as a different symbol of freedom to ensure not only the postwar white right to rule but to assert states rights This social political and military history examines how Black militias were integral to the process of liberation Reconstruction and nation building that defined the latter half of the nineteenth century South A volume in the series Southern Dissent edited by Stanley Harrold and Randall M Miller      Historic Sites and Landmarks That Shaped America Mitchell Newton-Matza,2016-09-06

Exploring the significance of places that built our cultural past this guide is a lens into historical sites spanning the entire history of the United States from Acoma Pueblo to Ground Zero Historic Sites and Landmarks That Shaped America From Acoma Pueblo to Ground Zero encompasses more than 200 sites from the earliest settlements to the present covering a wide variety of locations It includes concise yet detailed entries on each landmark that explain its importance to the nation With entries arranged alphabetically according to the name of the site and the state in which it resides this work covers both obscure and famous landmarks to demonstrate how a nation can grow and change with the creation or discovery of important places The volume explores the ways different cultures viewed revered or even vilified these sites It also examines why people remember such places more than others Accessible to both novice and expert readers this well researched guide will appeal to anyone from high school students to general adult readers      Lost Mill Towns of North Georgia Lisa M.

Russell,2020-04-13 The textile era was born of a perfect storm When North Georgia s red clay failed farmers and prices fell during Reconstruction opportunities arose Beginning in the 1880s textile industries moved south Mill owners enticed an entire workforce to leave their farms and move their families into modern mill villages encased communities with stores theaters baseball teams bands and schools To some workers mill village life was idyllic They had work recreation education shopping and a home with the modern conveniences of running water and electricity Most importantly they got a paycheck But after the New Deal workers started to see the raw deal they were getting from mill owners and rebelled Strikes and economic changes began to erode the era of mill villages and by the 1960s mill village life was all but gone Author Lisa Russell brings these once vibrant communities back to life      Scenic Georgia Sketchbook, A: Landmarks and Wonders from the Back Roads Ronald R. Huffman,2021 More than eighty historic buildings and roadside landmarks across Georgia have found sanctuary in this stark but powerful collection of sketch work From obscure treasures like a Cobb County covered bridge to the instantly recognizable Forsyth Park in Savannah landscape architect Ronald Huffman puts pencil to pad to safeguard moments of state history Each piece is accompanied by anecdotes and related backstories that preserve the context of these icons before progress irrevocably alters the landscape Explore the back roads of Georgia with a guide attuned to the unexpected splendors that mark the way      American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977

R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography,1978      The Tifts of Georgia John D. Fair,2010 This unique book addresses the under analyzed subject of internal migration in American historiography by showing the impact of eight generations of a family from New England on the development of Southern Georgia from the eighteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries Focusing on cross regional influences The Tifts of Georgia sheds new light on such traditional topics as paternalism cultural assimilation and race relations Originally from Mystic Connecticut the Tifts migrated to Key West

Florida where they profited from the wrecking trade set up business operations at various points along the eastern coast of the United States and eventually made a significant impact on some of the less developed areas of Georgia The most important member of the family was Nelson Tift a pioneer businessman who founded the city of Albany Georgia in the 1830s and played a major role on behalf of his adopted state during the Civil War and Reconstruction His enterprises were often coordinated with his brother Asa in Key West Their nephew Henry Harding Tift founded Tifton and Tift County and Tift College in Forsyth was named for Henry s wife Bessie a major benefactor Later Tifts were not only involved in the continued development of Albany and Tifton but made significant contributions to the economy and civic life of Macon Atlanta and other communities The most important theme embodied in this monograph is how the Tifts brought Connecticut Yankee values to the South but were in turn transformed into Southerners The Tifts of Georgia is richly illustrated with charts maps and original photographs This history of an important Georgia family should be of special interest to professional and amateur historians sociologists cultural anthropologists and genealogists
