Literary Movements for Students David Galens,2002 Annotation Literary Movements for Students is designed to meet the needs of students and researchers studying literary movements and the specific works representative of various movements Entries provide in depth historical background information on each movement as well as modern critical interpretation of each movement s characteristic styles and themes Approximately 25 movements are covered including absurdism Greek drama modernism science fiction fantasy surrealism and many others The Routledge Concise History of Nineteenth-Century Literature Josephine Guy,Ian Small,2010-11-15 Nineteenth century Britain saw the rise of secularism the development of a modern capitalist economy multi party democracy and an explosive growth in technological scientific and medical knowledge It also witnessed the emergence of a mass literary culture which changed permanently the relationships between writers readers and publishers Focusing on the work of British and Irish authors The Routledge Concise History of Nineteenth Century Literature considers changes in literary forms styles and genres as well as in critical discourses examines literary movements such as Romanticism Pre Raphaelitism Aestheticism and Decadence considers the work of a wide range of canonical and non canonical writers discusses the impact of gender studies queer theory postcolonialism and book history contains useful student friendly features such as explanatory text boxes chapter summaries a detailed glossary and suggestions for further reading In their lucid and accessible manner Josephine M Guy and Ian Small provide readers with an understanding of the complexity and variety of nineteenth century literary culture as well as the historical conditions which produced it ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 1 - Old English (Anglo-Saxon) and Medieval Periods Petru Golban,2020-11-24 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution by means of the books in the present series we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism The Routledge Concise History of Nineteenth-Century Literature Josephine Guy,Ian Small,2010-11-15 Nineteenth century Britain saw the rise of secularism the development of a modern capitalist economy multi party democracy and an explosive growth in technological scientific and medical knowledge It also witnessed the emergence of a mass literary culture which changed permanently the relationships between writers readers and publishers Focusing on the work of British and Irish authors The Routledge Concise History of Nineteenth Century Literature considers changes in literary forms styles and genres as well as in critical discourses examines literary movements such as Romanticism Pre Raphaelitism Aestheticism and Decadence considers the work of a wide range of canonical and non canonical writers discusses the impact of gender studies queer theory postcolonialism and book history contains useful student friendly features such as explanatory text boxes chapter summaries a detailed glossary and suggestions for further reading In their lucid and accessible manner Josephine M Guy and Ian Small provide readers with an understanding of the complexity and variety of nineteenth century literary culture as well as the historical conditions which produced it

Literary Analysis: The Basics Celena Kusch,2016-03-10 Literary Analysis The Basics is an insightful introduction to analysing a wide range of literary forms Providing a clear outline of the methodologies employed in twenty first century literary analysis it introduces readers to the genres canons terms issues critical approaches and contexts that affect the analysis of any text It addresses such questions as What counts as literature Is analysis a dissection How do gender race class and culture affect the meaning of a text Why is the social and historical context of a text important Can digital media be analysed in the same way as a poem With examples from ancient myths to young adult fiction a glossary of key terms and suggestions for further reading Literary Analysis The Basics is essential reading for anyone wishing to improve their analytical reading skills

ENGLISH LITERATURE ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 4 - The Eighteenth Century Petru Golban,2022-12-28 It appears that literary work possesses eternal temporal validity due to its autonomous aesthetic value whereas criticism provides points of view having temporary and transitory significance Despite such claims the vector of methodology in our series of books dealing with the history of English literature relies on Viktor Shklovsky T S Eliot Mikhail Bakhtin and especially Yuri Tynyanov whose main reasoning would be that literature is a system of dominant central and peripheral marginalized elements to us tradition centre versus innovation margin engaged in a battle for supremacy demarginalization and the right to form a new literary system and the development or historical advancement of literature is the substitution of systems Roman Jakobson and French structuralism on the whole later Linda Hutcheon with her system and constant and Bran Nicol with the dominant to say nothing about Itamar Even Zohar and his theory of polysystem to a certain extent Julia Kristeva and even Homi Bhabha as well as our humble contribution we would like to believe maintain Tynyanov s line of thinking and concepts alive which have developed and emerged nowadays more like a kind of neo formalism Focusing on literary practice applying critical theory and emerging from within our own teaching experience the books in the present series are theoretical and surveyistic like a monograph whereas their more practical and text oriented aspect should appeal as a student handbook for didactic purposes in which certain literary works belonging to various writers of different trends movements and periods are analysed and compared with regard to their source form

ADVANCING THROUGH HISTORY 3 - The Seventeenth Century Petru Golban, 2021-12-24 The present book is third in a series of works which aim to expose the complexity and essence power and extent of the major periods movements trends genres authors and literary texts in the history of English literature Following this aim the series will consist of monographs which cover the most important ages and experiences of English literary history including Anglo Saxon or Old English period the Middle Ages the Renaissance the Restoration neoclassicism romanticism Victorian Age and the twentieth century and contemporary literary backgrounds The reader of these volumes will acquire the knowledge of literary terminology along with the theoretical and critical perspectives on certain texts and textual typology belonging to different periods movements trends and genres The reader will also learn about the characteristics and conventions of these literary periods and movements trends and genres main writers and major works and the literary interaction and continuity of the given periods Apart from an important amount of reference to literary practice some chapters on these periods include information on their philosophy criticism worldview values or episteme in the Foucauldian sense which means that even though the condition of the creative writing remains as the main concern it is balanced by a focus on the condition of thought as well as theoretical and critical writing during a particular period Preface Introduction Approaching Literary Practice and Studying British Literature in History Preliminaries Learning Literary Heritage through Critical Tradition or Back to Tynyanov Genre Theory for Poetry The Intellectual Background 1 1 The Period and Its Historical Social and Cultural Implications 1 2 The Philosophical Advancement of Modernity 1 2 1 Francis Bacon and the New Method 1 2 2 The Advancement of Classicism French Contribution 1 2 3 The Social and Political Philosophy Thomas Hobbes and Leviathan 1 2 4 Rationalists and Empiricists 1 3 The Idea of Literature as a Critical Concern in the Seventeenth Century 1 3 1 The English Battle of the Books or La Querelle des Anciens et des Modernes in the European Context 1 3 2 Restoration John Dryden and Prescribing Neoclassicism The Literary Background 2 1 The British Seventeenth Century and Its Literary Practice 2 2 Metaphysical Poetry Its Alternatives and Aftermath 2 3 The Puritan Period and Its Literary Expression 2 4 The Restoration Period and Its Literature 2 5 The Picaresque Tradition in European and English Literature Major Literary Voices 3 1 The Metaphysical Poets I John Donne 3 2 The Metaphysical Poets II George Herbert 3 3 The Metaphysical Poets III Andrew Marvell 3 4 John Milton The Voice of the Century 3 4 1 L Allegro and Il Penseroso 3 4 2 Lycidas and Sonnets 3 4 3 Paradise Lost and the Epic of Puritanism 3 5 John Dryden and His Critical Theory and Literary Practice Conclusion The Literature of a Turbulent Age References and Suggestions for Further Reading Index      An Introductory Study on China's Cultural Transformation in Recent Times Yunzhi Geng, 2014-10-22 This book examines in detail the basic trajectory of the cultural transformation and brings to light the extrinsic conditions and intrinsic mechanisms involved It focuses on the period from after the Opium

Wars to the New Culture Movement as the New Culture Movement can be considered a pivotal phase in the cultural transformation of modern day China The New Culture Movement was a revolutionary eruption triggered by the accumulation of all the new qualitative cultural factors since the Opium Wars Superficially the movement's goal seemed to be to overthrow the traditional culture But in essence its true objective was to conduct an overall screening of that culture The book elaborates a broad variety of points in this context including the ideological and cultural evolution following the Opium Wars the pressing challenges faced by Zhong Ti the initial shaping of social public and cultural spaces and major trends in ideological and cultural transformation at the end of the Qing Dynasty the political disarray and conflicts between the new and old ideology in the first years of the Republic the rise of the New Culture Movement and the role of conservatism in the transition to a modern culture

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained
