Routledge Revivals: Medieval Italy (2004). Christopher Kleinhenz,2017      Rethinking the Needham Question

Raymond W. K. Lau,2024-12-24 This book offers a new investigation of the Needham Question Why did modern science emerge in Europe but not in any of the advanced non European civilizations Eurocentric accounts attribute it to certain qualities said to be unique to Europe Opposed to the Eurocentric view is a position known as the dialogical perspective Dialogism argues that Europe borrowed heavily from non European scientific knowledges and that scientific exchanges were key to the development of modern science Neo Eurocentric arguments have emerged in response to the challenge of dialogism and the debate between Eurocentrism neo Eurocentrism and dialogism currently stands at a stalemate In this book Raymond Lau brings a new theoretical methodological framework to finally settle this debate The historical analysis developed here shows that to secure the non Eurocentric case and decisively rebut Eurocentrism and neo Eurocentrism it is necessary to go beyond dialogism both theoretically and methodologically      Sensational Religion Sally

Promey,2014-06-24 The result of a collaborative multiyear project this groundbreaking book explores the interpretive worlds that inform religious practice and derive from sensory phenomena Under the rubric of making sense the studies assembled here ask How have people used and valued sensory data How have they shaped their material and immaterial worlds to encourage or discourage certain kinds or patterns of sensory experience How have they framed the sensual capacities of images and objects to license a range of behaviors including iconoclasm censorship and accusations of blasphemy or sacrilege Exposing the dematerialization of religion embedded in secularization theory editor Sally Promey proposes a fundamental reorientation in understanding the personal social political and cultural work accomplished in religion s sensory and material practice Sensational Religion refocuses scholarly attention on the robust material entanglements often discounted by modernity s metaphysic and on their inextricable connections to human bodies behaviors affects and beliefs

The Art of Biblical Interpretation Heidi J. Hornik,Ian Boxall,Bobbi Dykema,2021-08-24 A richly illustrated collection of essays on visual biblical interpretation For centuries Christians have engaged their sacred texts as much through the visual as through the written word Yet until recent decades the academic disciplines of biblical studies and art history largely worked independently This volume bridges that gap with the interdisciplinary work of biblical scholars and art historians Focusing on the visualization of biblical characters from both the Old and New Testaments essays illustrate the potential of such collaboration for a deeper understanding of the Bible and its visual reception Contributions from Ian Boxall James

Clifton David B Gowler Jonathan Homrighausen Heidi J Hornik Jeff Jay Christine E Joynes Yohana A Junker Meredith Munson and Ela Nu foreground diverse cultural contexts and chronological periods for scholars and students of the Bible and art

A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history
