H. Kooijmans, 2025-02-10 The World Court in Action Howard N. Meyer, 2002 Traces the World Court from the Hague Conference of 1899 and shows its development through World War I the League of Nations World War II and the cold war up to the contemporary challenges of East Timor and Kosovo Also distinguishes between the nation state oriented work of the World Court and the work of the International Criminal Court which was proposed in 1998 to prosecute individual war criminals like Milosevic and others coming out of the conflicts of the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda Discusses the common problem that World Court and the ICC have resistance in Washington to the international rule of law especially when it comes to authority surrounding the use of force The Oxford Handbook of European History, 1914-1945 Nicholas Doumanis, 2016-05-05 The period spanning the two World Wars was unquestionably the most catastrophic in Europe's history Despite such undeniably progressive developments as the radical expansion of women's suffrage and rising health standards the era was dominated by political violence and chronic instability Its symbols were Verdun Guernica and Auschwitz By the end of this dark period tens of millions of Europeans had been killed and more still had been displaced and permanently traumatized If the nineteenth century gave Europeans cause to regard the future with a sense of optimism the early twentieth century had them anticipating the destruction of civilization The fact that so many revolutions regime changes dictatorships mass killings and civil wars took place within such a compressed time frame suggests that Europe experienced a general crisis The Oxford Handbook of European History 1914-1945 reconsiders the most significant features of this calamitous age from a transnational perspective It demonstrates the degree to which national experiences were intertwined with those of other nations and how each crisis was implicated in wider regional continental and global developments Readers will find innovative and stimulating chapters on various political social and economic subjects by some of the leading scholars working on modern European history today T.M.C. Asser (1838-1913) (2 vols.) Arthur Eyffinger, 2019-06-03 This publication presents a comprehensive review of the life and intellectual legacy of the Dutch Nobel Peace laureate and father of the Hague tradition of international law It is the first research study based on a wealth of recently disclosed private and family files and deepens and modifies all earlier evaluations It enlarges on Asser's achievements as legal practitioner university pioneer of private international law diplomat and arbitrator and State Councillor It discusses his durable impact as founder of international law bodies and institutions It likewise highlights the impressive Asser family tradition that exemplifies 19th century Jewish emancipation in Amsterdam addresses Asser's youth and student years his role as family man and the impact of personal drama on his career Detailed Table of Contents Layout of the Book Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, 1984-09-12 The Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science provides an outstanding resource in 33 published volumes with 2 helpful indexes This thorough reference set written by 1300 eminent international experts offers librarians information computer scientists bibliographers documentalists systems analysts and students convenient access to the techniques and tools of both library and information science Impeccably researched cross
