"Lee is Trapped, and Must be Taken" Thomas J. Ryan,Richard R. Schaus,2019-04-15 This award winning Civil War history examines Robert E Lee s retreat from Gettysburg and the vital importance of Civil War military intelligence While countless books have examined the Battle of Gettysburg the Confederate Army s retreat to the Potomac River remains largely untold This comprehensive study tells the full story including how Maj Gen George G Meade organized and motivated his Army of the Potomac to pursue Gen Robert E Lee s retreating Army of Northern Virginia The long and bloody battle exhausted both armies and both faced difficult tasks ahead Lee had to conduct an orderly withdrawal from the field Meade had to assess whether his army had sufficient strength to pursue a still dangerous enemy Central to the respective commanders decisions was the intelligence they received about one another s movements intentions and capability The eleven day period after Gettysburg was a battle of wits to determine which commander better understood the information he received Prepare for some surprising revelations The authors utilized a host of primary sources to craft this study including letters memoirs diaries official reports newspapers and telegrams The immediacy of this material shines through in a fast paced narrative that sheds significant new light on one of the Civil War s most consequential episodes Winner Edwin C Bearss Scholarly Research Award Winner 2019 Hugh G Earnhart Civil War Scholarship Award Mahoning Valley Civil War Round Table "If We Are Striking for Pennsylvania", Volume 1: June 3-21, 1863 Scott L. Mingus,Eric J. Wittenberg,2024-01-05 Scott L Mingus Sr and Eric J Wittenberg the authors of more than forty Civil War books have once again teamed up to present a history of the opening moves of the Gettysburg Campaign in the two volume study If We Are Striking for Pennsylvania The Army of Northern Virginia and the Army of the Potomac March to Gettysburg This compelling study is one of the first to integrate the military media political social economic and civilian perspectives with rank and file accounts from the soldiers of both armies as they inexorably march toward their destiny at Gettysburg This first installment covers June 3 21 1863 while the second spanning June 22 30 completes the march and carries the armies to the eve of the fighting Gen Robert E Lee began moving part of his Army of Northern Virginia from the Old Dominion toward Pennsylvania on June 3 1863 Lee believed his army needed to win a major victory on Northern soil if the South was to have a chance at winning the war Transferring the fighting out of war torn Virginia would allow the state time to heal while he supplied his army from untapped farms and stores in Maryland and the Keystone State Lee had also convinced Pres Jefferson Davis that his offensive would interfere with the Union effort to take Vicksburg in Mississippi The bold movement would trigger extensive cavalry fighting and a major battle at Winchester before culminating in the bloody three day battle at Gettysburg As the Virginia army moved north the Army of the Potomac responded by protecting the vital roads to Washington D C in case Lee turned to threaten the capital Opposing presidents Abraham Lincoln and Jefferson Davis meanwhile kept a close watch on the latest and often conflicting military intelligence gathered in the field Throughout northern Virginia central Maryland and south central Pennsylvania meanwhile civilians and soldiers alike struggled with the reality of a mobile campaign and the massive logistical needs of the armies Thousands left written accounts of the passage of the long martial columns Mingus and Wittenberg mined hundreds of primary accounts newspapers and other sources to produce this powerful and gripping account As readers will quickly learn much of it is glossed over in other studies of the campaign which cannot be fully understood without a firm appreciation of what the armies and civilians did on their way to the small crossroads town in Pennsylvania History of Scranton and Its People Frederick Lyman Hitchcock, 1914 Guarding the Border Jeffrey L. Patrick, 2009-02-10 Ward Loren Schrantz of Carthage Missouri entered the U S Army in 1912 at a time when military leaders were still seriously debating the future of the horse cavalry He left active military service in 1946 after the United States dropped the atomic bomb on Japan Schrantz served capably at a time when the U S military was undergoing rapid technological and strategic transformation and as a journalist and attentive observer left a vivid personal account of his time in the Army and Missouri National Guard Editor Jeff Patrick has woven three undated versions of Schrantz s memoir into a single narrative focused on the sparsely documented pre World War I period from 1912 to 1917 thus helping to fill a significant gap in the existing literature Schrantz s memoir is notable not only for the period it covers but also for its lively evocation of a soldier s life during the U S Mexico border disturbances of the early twentieth century Schrantz s account demonstrates the perennial contrast between how soldiers were expected to behave and how they actually behaved it offers colorful and authentic details not usually available from official histories Patrick also has added an appendix consisting of the letters that Schrantz wrote for publication in his hometown newspaper the Carthage Evening Press These documents yield interesting insights into the attitudes and dispositions of U S soldiers during this time as well as the perceptions and opinions of the folks back home Students scholars and others interested in military and borderlands history will find much to enjoy in Guarding the Border The Military Memoirs of Ward Schrantz 1912 1917
