History Canadian Journalism Classic Reprint:

A History of Canadian Journalism, 1908 (Classic Reprint) Canadian Press Association, 2017-09-18 Excerpt from A History of Canadian Journalism 1908 The Committee wishes too to express its thanks to Mr H C Bell for exceedingly valuable assistance in correcting and revising the proofs The promise of the late Hon J I Tarte to contribute an article on the French Press was frustrated by the hand of death and to this extent the book is in complete One other phase of Canadian journalism which is left for a future historian is a sketch of the Parliamentary Press Galleries The Committee also had prepared a Chronology of the Canadian Press covering the entire period from 1752 to 1908 but this grew to such voluminous proportions that it was found impossible to include it in the present book About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis Robert E. Babe, 2015-04-21 Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis is an original critical in depth analysis of the media and communication thought of Canada's most highly acclaimed scholar Harold Adams Innis Even in Canada however Innis's writings until now have been only partially cited and interpreted Innis is usually stereotyped as being merely an economic historian fixated on previous civilizations whereas in fact he was an astute analyst whose main concerns were with present problems and future trajectories In the United States meanwhile Innis's media and communication writings have been quite neglected and even denigrated Drawing on Innis's less frequently cited work including his long neglected Political Economy in the Modern State Robert Babe opens up Innis's media scholarship as a whole unfolding it in startling critical yet ultimately appreciative ways By comparing Innis's media scholarship with Wilbur Schramm's and Noam Chomsky's moreover Babe tests the claims positions and modes of analysis not only of Innis but also of the other two celebrated scholars as well casting new light on their works and allowing the reader to imagine what sort of discourses might have been possible had the three been in conversation together Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis provides comparative insight into foundational media scholarship in the United States and Canada and explores in some detail the relevance of Innis for twenty first century digitized society A Bibliography of Journalism Hubert W. Bailey,Claude Bissell,Roy Daniells,Northrop Frye,Desmond Pacey,1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume I comprises Parts I to III of the original edition and covers the years from the beginning of Canadian literature in English to about 1920 The contributors to this volume are David Galloway Victor G Hopwood Alfred G Bailey Fred Cogswell James and Ruth Talman Carl F Klinck Edith Gordon Roper Rupert Schieder S Ross Beharriell Brandon Conron Elizabeth Waterston Alec Lucas John A Irving A H Johnson A Vibert Douglas and Frank W Watt Canadian Women in Print, 1750-1918 Carole Gerson,2011-05-24 Canadian Women in Print 1750 1918 is the first historical examination of women s engagement with multiple aspects of print over some two hundred years from the settlers who wrote diaries and letters to the New Women who argued for ballots and equal rights Considering women s published writing as an intervention in the public sphere of national and material print culture this book uses approaches from book history to address the working and living conditions of women who wrote in many genres and for many reasons This study situates English Canadian authors within an extensive framework that includes francophone writers as well as women s work as compositors bookbinders and interveners in public access to print Literary authorship is shown to be one point on a spectrum that ranges from missionary writing temperance advocacy and educational texts to journalism and travel accounts by New Woman adventurers Familiar figures such as Susanna Moodie L M Montgomery Nellie McClung Pauline Johnson and Sara Jeannette Duncan are contextualized by writers whose names are less well known such as Madge Macbeth and Agnes Laut and by many others whose writings and biographies have vanished into the recesses of history Readers will learn of the surprising range of writing and publishing performed by early Canadian women under various ideological biographical and cultural motivations and circumstances Some expressed reluctance while others eagerly sought literary careers Together they did much more to shape Canada s cultural history than has heretofore been recognized Guide to Reprints, 1985 Ann S. Davis,Albert James Diaz,1985-03 Bibliography of Natural History Travel Narratives Anne S. Troelstra,2017-06-01 Anne Troelstra s fine bibliography is an outstanding and ground breaking work He has provided the academic world with a long needed bibliographical record of human endeavour in the field of the natural sciences The travel narratives listed here encompass all aspects of the natural world in every part of the globe but are especially concerned with its fauna flora and fossil remains Such eyewitness accounts have always fascinated their readers but they were never written solely for entertainment fragmentary though they often are these narratives of travel and exploration are of immense importance for our scientific understanding of life on earth providing us with a window on an ever changing and often vanishing natural world Without such records of the past we could not track document or understand the significance of changes that are so important for the study of zoogeography With this book Troelstra gives us a superb overview of natural history travel narratives The well over four thousand detailed entries ranging over four centuries and all major western European languages are drawn from a wide range of sources and include both printed books and periodical contributions While no subject bibliography by a single author can attain absolute completeness Troelstra's work is comprehensive to a truly remarkable degree The entries are arranged alphabetically by author and chronologically by the year of first publication under the author's name A brief biography with the scope and range of their work is given for each author every title is set in context the contents including illustrations are described and all known editions and translations are cited In addition there is a geographical index that cross refers between authors and the regions visited and a full list of the bibliographical and biographical sources used in compiling the bibliography

Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Dept. of Special Collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, 2003-12-31 The Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries aims at recording articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description
