History's People Personalities And The Past Cbc Massey Lectures:

History's People Margaret MacMillan, 2015-09-08 Part of the CBC Massey Lectures Series In History's People internationally acclaimed historian Margaret MacMillan gives her own personal selection of figures of the past women and men some famous and some little known who stand out for her Some have changed the course of history and even directed the currents of their times Others are memorable for being risk takers adventurers or observers She looks at the concept of leadership through Bismarck and the unification of Germany William Lyon MacKenzie King and the preservation of the Canadian Federation Franklin Delano Roosevelt and the bringing of a unified United States into the Second World War She also notes how leaders can make huge and often destructive mistakes as in the cases of Hitler Stalin and Thatcher Richard Nixon and Samuel de Champlain are examples of daring risk takers who stubbornly went their own ways often in defiance of their own societies Then there are the dreamers explorers and adventurers individuals like Fanny Parkes and Elizabeth Simcoe who manage to defy or ignore the constraints of their own societies Finally there are the observers such as Babur the first Mughal emperor of India and Victor Klemperer a Holocaust survivor who kept the notes and diaries that bring the past to life History's People is about the important and complex relationship between biography and history individuals and their times

Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan, 2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography
