Domenico Ghirlandaio Jeanne K. Cadogan, Domenico Ghirlandaio, 2000-01-01 Domenico Ghirlandaio was one of the most popular artists in fifteenth century Florence. He worked in a variety of media including panel paintings, wall murals, mosaic, and manuscript illumination, and his workshop, to which Michelangelo was apprenticed, was highly influential. This beautiful book offers a radically new interpretation of Ghirlandaio's life and work, viewing him primarily as an artisan active within the craft traditions, guild structure, and workshop organizations of his day. Jean K. Cadogan argues that Ghirlandaio was a pivotal figure in the transformation of the artist from medieval artisan to Renaissance genius. She traces his gradual social elevation, which reflected the increasing respect with which he was treated by his patrons. And she notes that the changes in the way he and other artists were viewed created a milieu that encouraged innovation in technique, style, and content qualities that were vividly displayed in Ghirlandaio's work. Cadogan explains how his working method, his pragmatic artisan approach to technique, the organization and functioning of his workshop, and his relations with his patrons affected the works of art Ghirlandaio produced. Her text is complemented by a catalogue raisonné of Ghirlandaio's works in all media, as well as an appendix of documents useful for scholars.

Florence, Berlin and Beyond: Late Nineteenth-Century Art Markets and their Social Networks, 2020-06-22 Recent and increasing interest in art market studies—the dealers, mediators, advisors, taste makers, artists, etc.—indicates that the transaction of art and decorative art is anything but linear. Taking as its point of departure two of the most active agents of the late nineteenth century, Wilhelm von Bode and Stefano Bardini, the essays in this volume also look beyond to other art market individuals and their vast and frequently interconnected social and professional networks. Newly told history, taken from rich business, epistolary, and photographic archives, these essays examine the art market within a broader and more complex context. In doing so, they offer new areas of inquiry for mapping of works of art as they were exchanged over time and place.

Seals and Sealing in the Ancient World Marta Ameri, Sarah Kielt Costello, Gregg Jamison, Sarah Jarmer Scott, 2018-05-03 Studies of seals and sealing practices have traditionally investigated aspects of social, political, economic, and ideological systems in ancient societies throughout the Old World. Previously, scholarship has focused on description and documentation, chronology, and dynastic histories, administrative function, iconography, and style. More recent studies have emphasized context, production, and use, and increasingly, identity, gender, and the social lives of seals, their users, and the artisans who produced them. Using several methodological and theoretical perspectives, this volume presents up-to-date research on seals that is comparative in scope and focus. The cross-cultural and interdisciplinary approach advances our understanding of the significance of an important class of material culture of the ancient world. The volume will serve as an essential resource for scholars, students, and others interested in glyptic studies, seal production and use, and sealing practices in the Ancient Near East, Egypt, Ancient South Asia, and the

Fine Arts, Boston Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1902 Annual Report Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1903 Giotto the Painter. Volume 1-3 Michael Viktor Schwarz, 2023-04-17 Vol 1 Life Giotto 1334 is the first European artist about whom it is possible to write following the schema of life and work The situation of the sources however is complicated On Giotto's life there are on the one hand biographical accounts from the mid fourteenth century onwards that responded to various ideological requirements patriotism humanism Renaissance ideology cult of the artist on the other there is extensive documentary material from Giotto's lifetime which seems to reflect less the biography of an artist than that of a bourgeois businessman resolutely climbing the social ladder The present volume focuses on this second aspect of the Giotto figure's double life relating it to the form of existence of the pre-modern artist Vol 2 Works The paintings examined and contextualised in this volume are those secured for Giotto through early written sources These sources also help to reconstruct the sequence of his works and artistic inventions as is plausible in the context of media culture in the decades around and after 1300 while Giotto was spiritually and intellectually formed in the sphere of the Florentine Dominicans his artistic path began in Rome in the shadow of the Curia The breakthrough to his own artistic concept came immediately before and during his work in Padua In addition to prominent churchmen ecclesiastical institutions and the King of Naples his clients were predominantly members of Italy's urban and financial elites The adoption and further development of his inventions by other especially Siennese painters pressured him in his later years to try new approaches again Vol 3 Survival Giotto is considered by many to be the founder of modern painting This thesis is discussed and modified in the present volume on an empirical basis What emerges is that Giotto's impact cannot be reduced simply to the introduction of the study of nature Rather his art was involved in the development of pictorial idioms that were attuned to the skills and interests of their audiences The new approaches in his painting contributed in particular to the possibility of examining and communicating psychological narrative and allegorical content of great complexity outside the media of language and text which not only changed the face of European art but certainly contributed to the intellectual opening of Western societies

Giotto the Painter. Volume 2: Works Michael Viktor Schwarz, 2023-04-17 The paintings examined and contextualised in this volume are those secured for Giotto through early written sources These sources also help to reconstruct the sequence of his works and artistic inventions as is plausible in the context of media culture in the decades around and after 1300 while Giotto was spiritually and intellectually formed in the sphere of the Florentine Dominicans his artistic path began in Rome in the shadow of the Curia The breakthrough to his own artistic concept came immediately before and during his work in Padua In addition to prominent churchmen ecclesiastical institutions and the King of Naples his clients were predominantly members of Italy's urban and financial elites The adoption and further development of his inventions by other especially Siennese painters pressured him in his later years to try new approaches again The Vienna School of Art History Matthew Rampley, 2015-06-26 Matthew Rampley's The Vienna School of Art History is the first book in over seventy five years to study in depth and in context the practices of art history from 1847 the year the first teaching position in the discipline was created to 1918 the collapse of Austria Hungary It traces the emergence of art history as a discipline the establishment of norms of scholarly inquiry and the involvement of art historians in wider debates about the cultural and political identity of the monarchy The so called Vienna School plays the central role in the study but Rampley also examines the formation of art history elsewhere in Austria Hungary Located in the Habsburg imperial capital Vienna art historians frequently became entangled in debates that were of importance to art historians elsewhere in the Empire and Rampley pays particular attention to these areas of overlapping interest He also analyzes the methodological innovations for which the Vienna School was well known Rampley focuses most fully however on the larger political and ideological context of the practice of art history particularly the way in which art historical debates served as proxies for wider arguments over the political social and cultural life of the Habsburg Empire
