New Dimensions in Spirituality, Religion, and Aging Vern Bengtson, Merrill Silverstein, 2018-09-03. New Dimensions in Spirituality, Religion, and Aging expands the traditional focus of religiosity to include and evaluate recent research and discoveries on the role of secular spirituality in the aging process. Speak So I Shall Know Thee William J. Walsh, 2012-02-29. A. R. Ammons was asked if he agreed that the United States has not produced a major poet in the last 30 years. I agree. This comprehensive collection contains 31 interviews in which Southern writers talk about their craft, the Southern literary scene, and themselves. Poets, short story writers, and novelists include firmly established writers side by side with emerging talent. But hope is not lost. How to Grow Old is John's offering to the world. With sage advice on how to avoid the common pitfalls of age, intimate confessions, and spit-your-dentures-out hilarious commentary on his own advancing years, this is his observational comic writing at its very best. If you were concerned about how not to be boring or how to get rid of your should-be-old-enough-to-manage-kids, this book has the answers.

Theoretical Issues in Reading Comprehension Rand J. Spiro, Bertram C. Bruce, William F. Brewer, 2017-11-03. Research in cognitive psychology, linguistics, and artificial intelligence: the three disciplines that have the most direct application to an understanding of the mental processes in reading are presented in this multilevel work, originally published in 1980, that attempts to provide a systematic and scientific basis for understanding and building a comprehensive theory of reading comprehension. The major focus is on understanding the processes involved in the comprehension of written text. Underlying most of the contributions is the assumption that skilled reading comprehension requires a coordination of text with context in a way that goes far beyond simply chaining together the meanings of a string of decoded words. The topics discussed are divided into five general areas: Global Issues, Text Structure, Language Knowledge of the World, and Inference Effects of Prior Language Experience, and Comprehension.
