Ivenceremos? Jafari S. Allen, 2011-08-12 An ethnography of sexual identity formation in contemporary Cuba

Non-Binary Family Configurations: Intersections of Queerness and Homonormativity Brian Joseph Gilley, Giuseppe Masullo, 2022-07-18 This volume provides a close look at the ways in which LGBTQ2 people form familial bonds It brings together stories from non binary families across continents and cultures and recenters care as a foundational value for creating familial ties This volume therefore addresses a gap in the literature concerning non binary family configurations by going beyond the legal battle for non binary partnership rights In recent discussions on marriage equality the notion of familial bonds which was important in early discussions on non binary family research has been decentered in favor of legal and homonormative understandings of individual rights This volume centers familial bonds as the first step toward reimagining how to do research on the family and adds to research on family studies as well as gender studies Students and researchers of sociology anthropology social work gender studies family research well being research and anyone else working on or with non binary families will find this book highly topical and interesting

Tortilleras Negotiating Intimacy Anahi Russo, Anahi Russo Garrido, 2020-06-12 Tortilleras Negotiating Intimacy Love Friendship and Sex in Queer Mexico City is the first ethnography in English to focus primarily on women s sexual and intimate cultures in Mexico The book shows the transformation of intimacy in the lives of three generations of women in queer spaces in contemporary Mexico City as their sexual citizenship changes including references to same sex marriage and anti discrimination laws The book shows how these individuals reconfigure relationships through marriage polyamory friendship and sex Tortilleras Negotiating Intimacy suggests that new intimate cartographies are emerging in Mexico City ultimately redefining relationships gender and mexicanidad Building on ethnographic data collected over the past decade including forty five in depth interviews with women between the ages of twenty two and sixty five participating in LGBT spaces Tortilleras Negotiating Intimacy shows how lesbian women mainly cis but some trans negotiate friendship same sex marriage polyamory and sexual practices reinventing love eroticism friendship and ultimately the social organization of Latin American societies

Living with HIV in Post-Crisis Times David A.B. Murray, 2021-08-18 Over the past decade effective prevention and treatment policies have resulted in global health organizations claiming that the end of the HIV AIDS crisis is near and that HIV AIDS is now a chronic but manageable disease These proclamations have been accompanied by stagnant or decreasing public interest in and financial support for people living with HIV and the organizations that support them minimizing significant global disparities in the management and control of the HIV pandemic The contributors to this edited collection explore how diverse communities of people living with HIV PLHIV and organizations that support them are navigating physical social political and economic challenges during these so called post crisis times
