What We've Become Jonathan M. her own destiny and no longer just a cog in the corporate machine She longed for a life of freedom and creativity So she packed up her life in the West and travelled to the spiritual motherland to begin her new life in paradise to the land of the golden beaches and the Arabian Sea Goa She had made the contacts got her finances in place and was ready to go and follow her dream The initial plan was to get to know the ropes of running a hotel with the backup of a business partner and then further down the road create her own business However what she didn't envisage was that running a business in Goa was not like running a project as she knew it in the corporate world The plans she laid down meant nothing Goa and its people had its own ideas and ran to its own unpredictable and erratic drum It was full of false promises and empty words And then there was him At once she felt at ease and gave him her deepest secrets but in the end he too lived by the same drum beat
