Good Food Grounded Practical Theology:

Good Food Jennifer R. Ayres, 2013 The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Contemporary Christianity in the United States Mark A. Lamport, 2022-02-15 The Handbook of Contemporary Christianity in the United States is a one volume examination of Christianity in its role contributions and embattled engagements with the contemporary culture of the postmodern United States While Christianity has been a sustaining force and dominant storyline of the historical foundations of America obvious social political and scientific inroads have lessened its influence and altered the issues considered The handbook explores the strengths and weaknesses of the Christian faith and traditions in the United States and its rich and textured history with a discernable eye toward how the message strategies and initiatives of Christianity has adapted to contemporary American life Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Daniel J. Treier, Walter A. Elwell, 2017-11-07 This bestselling reference tool has been a trusted resource for more than 25 years with over 165 000 copies sold Now thoroughly updated and substantially revised to meet the needs of today's students and classrooms it offers cutting edge overviews of key theological topics Readable and reliable this work features new articles on topics of contemporary relevance to world Christianity and freshened articles on enduring theological subjects providing comprehensive A Z coverage for today's theology students The author base reflects the increasing diversity of evangelical scholars Advisory editors include D Jeffrey Bingham Cheryl Bridges Johns John G Stackhouse Jr Tite Ti nou and Kevin J Vanhoozer Questioning Our Faith in Practice Katherine Turpin, 2024-10-07 Practical theology emerged as a discipline steeped in white supremacy traces of which can be found in some of its most central practices and habits of mind Identifying the remnants of this legacy allows practical theologians to begin to imagine how to proceed without reinscribing narratives of white saviors unlimited progress dominating control of bodies and individual heroic leadership You are invited to question this worldview while learning from scholars imagining a decolonized future Creation's Slavery and Liberation Presian Renee Burroughs, 2022-11-03 What did the apostle Paul mean when he portrayed the creation as subjected to frustration and enslaved to destruction What forms of frustration and destruction might he have seen throughout the Roman Empire And how would he describe creation's condition today Creation's Slavery and Liberation addresses these questions by tracing the story of creation as it appears in Paul's own Scriptures the Tanakh Roman imperial propaganda Paul's letter to Rome and U S industrial agriculture This story reveals God to be the Creator who makes right justifies and makes alive through Jesus Christ and the Spirit Because God liberates justifies and vivifies the entire creation and since according to Paul creation's liberation is linked to humanity's glorification Paul expects Christians to pursue justice and nourish life Burroughs encapsulates key justice oriented and life supporting practices in seven eco ethical principles To make these principles come alive she describes the ways in which Roman imperial and American industrial regimes have caused injustice and destruction and instead she proposes more regenerative approaches to growing enjoying and sharing our daily bread The Meanings of Discipleship Andrew

Hayes, Stephen Cherry, 2022-07-22 Discipleship is a foundational concept of Christian life which has become a popular and ubiquitous description of belonging and growth in early 21st century ecclesiastical language Discipleship courses and popular writings abound and the term is used liberally in official church documents and strategies for growth and development particular in a western context But does recent use of the word risk reducing the wide range of meanings of discipleship to something less rich and inclusive than is warranted With contributions from an array of leading thinkers scholars and theologians including Rachel Mann Kirsteen Kim and Anthony Reddie this book argues that there is need for more clarity precision and depth in defining what meaningfully and constructively is construed as discipleship Beginning with an overview of how the concept of discipleship has been understood in history the volume goes on to consider some of the key figures who have shaped our understanding of the concept and finally to reflect on what discipleship might look like in contemporary society

Poetics of the Flesh Mayra Rivera, 2015-10-15 In Poetics of the Flesh Mayra Rivera offers poetic reflections on how we understand our carnal relationship to the world at once spiritual organic and social She connects conversations about corporeality in theology political theory and continental philosophy to show the relationship between the ways ancient Christian thinkers and modern Western philosophers conceive of the body and flesh Her readings of the biblical writings of John and Paul as well as the work of Tertullian illustrate how Christian ideas of flesh influenced the works of Maurice Merleau Ponty and Michel Foucault and inform her readings of Judith Butler Frantz Fanon and others Rivera also furthers developments in new materialism by exploring the intersections among bodies material elements social arrangements and discourses through body and flesh By painting a complex picture of bodies and by developing an account of how the social materializes in flesh Rivera provides a new way to understand gender and race

The Poesis of Peace Klaus-Gerd Giesen, Carool Kersten, Lenart Škof, 2017-03-27 Exploring the relations between the concepts of peace and violence with aesthetics nature the body and environmental issues The Poesis of Peace applies a multidisciplinary approach to case studies in both Western and non Western contexts including Islam Chinese philosophy Buddhist and Hindu traditions Established and renowned theologians and philosophers such as Kevin Hart Eduardo Mendieta and Clemens Sedmak as well as upcoming and talented young academics look at peace and non violence through the lens of recent scholarly advances on the subject achieved in the fields of theology philosophy political theory and environmentalism

Transcendence at the Table Julia Hurlow, 2020-10-29 When is the last time you sat down for a meal to break bread with other people and experienced peace Throughout the arc of the scriptural narrative the word shalom is used as a way to speak of the way of peace This word shalom embodies the depiction of creation where all things would glorify to the Triune God as well as bear the image of the Triune God who seamlessly embraces love and belonging What if the universal space at a table is where shalom is experienced relationally What if the longing people have for love and belonging can be extended through hospitality at a table Unification can happen when invitations are extended to come participate and communicate at the table as a reflection of the Imago Dei Eat the Bible Micah E. Chung, 2024-07-19 People love their metaphors for the Bible The Bible is a sword a mirror a script a score a cathedral a rule book a user s manual a lamp a love letter But how did metaphor which in the eighteenth century was seen as a deceptive rhetorical trick become such a prominent tool for speaking of Scripture And how does one judge between a good metaphor and a bad one This book explores the theological use of metaphor to describe the nature and interpretation of Scripture It interrogates three such models the Bible as musical score Anthony Thiselton the Bible as theo dramatic script Kevin Vanhoozer and the Bible as light John Feinberg seeking to evaluate their faithfulness to Scripture and church tradition their fittingness to the current culture and their fruitfulness for understanding and practicing the biblical text The author then proposes and explores what he considers a better model one drawn from the Bible itself namely that of Scripture as food Food, Farming and Religion Gretel Van Wieren, 2018-04-24 Although the religious and ethical consideration of food and eating is not a new phenomenon the debate about food and eating today is distinctly different from most of what has preceded it in the history of Western culture Yet the field of environmental ethics especially religious approaches to environmental ethics has been slow to see food and agriculture as topics worthy of analysis This book examines how religious traditions and communities in the United States and beyond are responding to critical environmental ethical issues posed by the global food system In particular it looks at the responses that have developed within Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions and shows how they relate to arguments and approaches in the broader study of food and environmental ethics It considers topics such as land degradation and restoration genetically modified organisms and seed consolidation animal welfare water use access pollution and climate and weaves consideration of human wellbeing and justice throughout In doing so Gretel Van Wieren proposes a model for conceptualizing agricultural and food practices in sacred terms This book will appeal to a wide and interdisciplinary audience including those interested in environment and sustainability food studies ethics and religion Grassroots to Global Marianne E. Krasny, 2018-06-15 This edited volume presents diverse case studies about the implications of civic ecology practices worldwide It answers how civic ecology practices emerge the role the practices play in the ability of communities and individuals to address social ecological stresses and given climate associated disturbances what strategies can be used to expand impacts of community driven practices to foster large scale resilience and sustainability Food Justice in US and Global Contexts Ian Werkheiser, Zachary Piso, 2017-07-01 This book offers fresh perspectives on issues of food justice The chapters emerged from a series of annual workshops on food justice held at Michigan State University between 2013 and 2015 which brought together a wide variety of interested people to learn from and work with each other Food justice can be studied from such diverse perspectives as philosophy anthropology economics gender and sexuality studies geography history literary criticism philosophy and sociology as well as the human dimensions of agricultural and environmental sciences As such interdisciplinary workshops are a much needed vehicle to improve our understanding of the subject which is at the center of a vibrant and growing discourse not only among academics from a wide range of disciplines but also among policy makers and community activists The book includes their perspectives offering a wide range of approaches to and conceptions of food justice in a variety of contexts This invaluable work requires readers to cross boundaries and be open to new ideas based on different assumptions Restorative Hope Sarah F. Farmer, 2024-03-14 How theological education can engender life giving hope for incarcerated women Amid dehumanizing conditions incarcerated people strive to generate hope As one returning citizen explains Hope is not just sitting around waiting for things to change Hope is not always an individual making things change Hope is sometimes a community making things change What can theologians teachers and chaplains do to assist their work Sarah F Farmer amplifies the voices of women who are or have been incarcerated to learn what supports their flourishing Combining theology and sociology Farmer shows how theological education can help cultivate the resilience and connection that women describe as life giving in and after prison Based in her own ministry this pedagogy incorporates artistic expression and critical thinking about justice to cultivate agency Restorative Hope will open readers eyes to the lived realities of the US penitentiary system Educators and theologians seeking to serve those in prison will find a wealth of firsthand perspective and practical resources in these pages Marian Reflections on War and Peace Lenart Škof, Emily A. Holmes, Pavlo Smytsnyuk, 2025-03-31 This book presents an original Marian approach towards war and peace dedicated to the suffering of children women and men in Mariupol and elsewhere in Ukraine and in the world Offering new theological perspectives on the contemporary impact of war the contributions take inspiration from the figure and symbol of Mary as protector of children and guardian of peace intermediary of the incarnation as well as model for ecumenical interreligious and intercultural engagements The chapters explore the role of Mary as a symbol for feminist and activist reflections for the communication of suffering as the mater dolorosa for power when appropriated for political ends and for healing and reconciliation in peace building efforts The book provides readers with valuable theological reflections on conflict global theological ethics ecofeminist and peace building thinking in theology and contemporary political theology Rooted and Grounded Ryan D. Harker, Janeen Bertsche Johnson, 2016-01-28 For many of us the connection between the ecological crisis and humanity's detachment from the land is becoming increasingly clear In biblical terms adam humanity has severed itself from the adamah soil and we creation are reaping the consequences This collection of essays and the conference from which it took shape calls the church to root itself more deeply in the agrarian biblical text and ecclesial tradition in order to remember and freshly imagine ways of living on and with the land that are restorative reconciling and faithful to the triune God's invitation to new life in Christ When we listen attentively to and patiently learn from the biblical text church history and theology the land itself can become a conversation partner and we are summoned to recognize that the gospel is reserved not simply for humanity but for the whole of creation Trinitarian Matters Lacey C. Warner, 2025-12-16 From Nicaea to now rediscovering how the Triune God shapes faithful ministry in a modern world In this illuminating collection marking the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea distinguished scholars and ministry practitioners from Duke Divinity School explore how Trinitarian faith continues to transform Christian identity and practice Moving beyond abstract formulations this volume demonstrates the enduring power of Nicene confession to shape faithful witness in today's complex landscape With an introduction from Dean Edgardo Colón Emeric this volume brings together biblical interpretation theological reflection compelling sermons and practical wisdom Contributors reveal how the doctrine of the Trinity provides vital resources for addressing contemporary challenges from the climate crisis to political division from church renewal to spiritual formation The essays examine how Trinitarian theology shapes worship informs preaching guides ethical engagement and empowers mission Contributors include William Willimon Jerusha Neal Luke Powery and Jung Choi among others Their diverse perspectives illuminate how the ancient affirmation of Father Son and Holy Spirit remains a living confession with power to transform individuals communities and creation Whether you're a pastor seeking to proclaim Trinitarian faith with clarity a church leader navigating institutional change or a believer wanting to deepen your theological understanding this volume offers both intellectual substance and spiritual nourishment Trinitarian Matters invites readers to discover how the church's foundational confession of the Triune God continues to inspire faithful ministry and mission in the twenty-first century

Faith Seeking Conviviality Samuel E. Ewell III, 2019-12-30 Faith Seeking Conviviality traces the journey of a U.S. missionary into Brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions Taking Ivan Illich as the primary theological guide on that journey Faith Seeking Conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for Christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions First given the colonial history of Christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the Great Commission Matt 28:16-20 as Christ's disciples A second question intimately related to the first is What makes it possible to embody a distinctively Christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative In doing theology with and after Ivan Illich Faith Seeking Conviviality does not offer a pull-off-the-shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of Christ relationally

Mission in Marginal Places: The Praxis Michael Pears, Paul Cloke, 2016-09-01 The second book in the series focuses on participation and practice and discusses a range of ways in which Kingdom-centred mission can be embedded in the actually existing realms of activity and need in marginal places The book explores five different realms of practice each presenting opportunities for innovative expressions of incarnational attentiveness to marginalized communities and people It seeks to inspire prayerful and discerning activity that tunes into what Jesus is doing in local places rather than providing any kind of off-the-shelf checklist of prefigured mission tactics It challenges readers to take their faith praxis beyond orthodox congregational settings and out into the everyday realms of life in marginal places

Food and Faith Norman Wirzba, 2018-11-29 This book provides a comprehensive theological framework for assessing the significance of eating Drawing on diverse theological philosophical and anthropological insights it offers fresh ways to evaluate food production and consumption practices as they are being worked out in today's industrial food economy Unlike books that focus primarily on vegetarianism and hunger related concerns this book broadens the scope of consideration to include the sacramental character of eating the deep significance of hospitality the meaning of death and sacrifice the Eucharist as the place of inspiration and orientation the importance of saying grace and the possibility of eating in heaven Throughout eating is presented as a way of enacting fidelity between persons between people and fellow creatures and between people and Earth Food and Faith demonstrates that eating is of profound economic moral and spiritual significance Revised throughout this edition includes a new introduction and two chapters as well as updated bibliography The additions add significantly to the core idea of creaturely membership and hospitality through discussion of the microbiome revolution in science and the daunting challenge of the Anthropocene
