presents a series of very curious drawings and verses These deal with the manners or rather lack of manners of various strange infants known as Goops and are intended to impress the value of politeness on children The verses are uniformly as clever as one might expect remembering some of Mr Burgess work in The Lark in San Francisco The following are a few of the lines The Goops they lick their fingers And the Goops they lick their knives They spill their broth on the table cloth Oh they lead disgusting lives Children will probably welcome this book with open arms and will treasure up the Goops with the
