Laundrying Black Rage Too Black, Rasul A Mowatt, 2024-04-11 Laundrying Black Rage The Washing of Black Death People Property and Profits is a spatial and historical critique of the capitalist State that examines how Black Rage conceived

as a constructive and logical response to the conquest of resources land and human beings racialized as Black is cleaned for the unyielding means of White capital Interlacing political theory with international histories of Black rebellion it presents a thoughtful challenge to the counterinsurgent tactics of the State that consistently convert Black Rage into a commodity to be bought sold and repressed Laundering Black Rage investigates how the Rage directed at the police murder of George Floyd could be marshalled to funnel the Black Lives Matter movement into corporate advertising and questionable leadership while increasing the police budgets inside the laundry cities of capital largely with our consent Essayist Performer Too Black and Geographer Rasul A Mowatt assert Black Rage as a threat to the flow of capital and the established order of things which must therefore be managed by the process of laundering Intertwining stories of Black resistance throughout the African diaspora State building under capitalism cities as sites of laundering and the world making of empire Laundering Black Rage also lays the groundwork for upending the laundering process through an anti colonial struggle of reverse laundering conquest Relevant to studies of race and culture history politics and the built environment this pathbreaking work is essential reading for scholars and organizers enraged at capitalism and White supremacy laundering their work for nefarious means
