Interpreting Crimes in the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court Leena Grover, 2014-10-16 This book offers the first detailed analysis of and guide to the interpretation of international crimes defined in the Rome Statute

An Introduction to the International Criminal Court William Schabas, 2007-10-18 The International Criminal Court ushers in a new era in the protection of human rights The Court will prosecute genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes when national justice systems are either unwilling or unable to do so themselves This third revised edition considers the initial rulings by the Pre Trial Chambers and the Appeals Chamber and the cases it is prosecuting namely Democratic Republic of Congo northern Uganda Darfur as well as those where it had decided not to proceed such as Iraq The law of the Court up to and including its ruling on a confirmation hearing committing Chales Lubanga for trial on child soldiers offences is covered It also addresses the difficulties created by US opposition analysing the ineffectiveness of measures taken by Washington to obstruct the Court and its increasing recognition of the inevitability of the institution An Introduction to the International Criminal Court William A. Schabas, 2011-02-17 The International Criminal Court has ushered in a new era in the protection of human rights Protecting against genocide crimes against humanity and war crimes the Court acts when national justice systems are unwilling or unable to do so Written by the leading expert in the field the fourth edition of this seminal text considers the Court in action its initial rulings cases it has prosecuted and cases where it has decided not to proceed such as Iraq It also examines the results of the Review Conference by which the crime of aggression was added to the jurisdiction of the Court and addresses the political context such as the warming of the United States to the Court and the increasing recognition of the inevitability of the institution The 1998-2000 Eritrea-Ethiopia War and Its Aftermath in International Legal Perspective Andrea de Guttry, Harry H. G. Post, Gabriella Venturini, 2021-04-01 This book centres on the war that raged between Eritrea and Ethiopia from 1998 to 2000 a war that caused great loss of life and tremendous devastation It analyses the war in great detail from an international legal perspective the nature and the state of the boundary conflict preceding the actual armed conflict the military actions themselves the role of the UN peace keeping mission the responsibility for the multitude of explosive remnants of the war left behind Ample attention is paid to the decisions of the Eritrea Ethiopia Claims Commission and the Eritrea Ethiopia Boundary Commission This study is not limited to the war and the period immediately following it it also examines its more extended aftermath prolonging the analysis as far as the more recent improvement in the relations between Eritrea and Ethiopia away from a situation of no war no peace that prevailed after the armed conflict ended The analysis of the war and its aftermath is not only in terms of international legal issues it has been placed in a wider than strictly legal perspective The book is a valuable work for academics and practitioners in international law human rights and humanitarian law in particular for political scientists diplomats civil servants historians and all those others seriously interested in the Horn of Africa Andrea de Guttry is Full Professor of Public International Law at the Scuola Superiore Sant Anna in Pisa Italy Harry H G Post is Adjunct Professor in the Facult Libre de Droit of the Universit Catholique de Lille in Lille France Gabriella Venturini is Professor Emerita in the Dipartimento di Studi internazionali giuridici e storico politici of the Universit degli Studi di Milano in Milan Italy The Hidden Histories of War Crimes Trials Kevin Heller, Gerry Simpson, 2013-10-31 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

Several instances of war crimes trials are familiar to all scholars but in order to advance understanding of the development of international criminal law it is important to provide a full range of evidence from less familiar trials This book therefore provides an essential resource for a more comprehensive overview uncovering and exploring some of the lesser known war crimes trials that have taken place in a variety of contexts international and domestic northern and southern historic and contemporary It analyses these trials with a view to recognising institutional innovations clarifying doctrinal debates and identifying their general relevance to contemporary international criminal law At the same time the book recognises international criminal law s history of suppression or sublimation What stories has the discipline refused to tell What stories have been displaced by the ones it has told Has international criminal law s framing or telling of these stories excluded other possibilities And perhaps most important of all how can recovering the lost stories and imagining new narrative forms reconfigure the discipline Many of the trials examined in this book have hardly ever before been discussed others have been examined only in the most cursory manner Indeed until now no volume has been dedicated to telling the story of these trials that have yet to find a place in the international criminal law canon Providing a detailed analysis of these trials which took place in Europe Africa South America and Australasia in both historical and contemporary contexts this book is essential reading for anyone concerned with the development of international criminal law

The Legality and Legitimacy of the Use of Force in Northeast Asia Brendan Howe, Boris Kondoch, 2013-06-06 In The Legality and Legitimacy of the Use of Force in Northeast Asia Brendan Howe and Boris Kondoch bring together distinguished authors with extensive Northeast Asian backgrounds to offer a diverse and comprehensive evaluation of when it is right from regional perspectives to use force in international relations The use of force in international relations has been severely curtailed by pragmatic considerations of international order and further constrained by positive international law In Northeast Asia the prohibition of aggression has remained uncontested Strict adherence to non intervention in Northeast Asia has however increasingly come under attack from internal and external normative communities The contributors therefore use regional legal normative cultural and historical insights to shed light on the contemporary positions of Northeast Asian political communities with regard to the use of force
