Classical Utilitarianism, 1800-1865 Callum Barrell,2021-10-07 This first comprehensive account of the utilitarians historical thought intellectually resituates their conceptions of philosophy and politics at a time when the past acquired new significances as both a means and object of study Drawing on published and unpublished writings and set against the intellectual backdrops of Scottish philosophical history German and French historicism romanticism positivism and the rise of social science and scientific history Callum Barrell recovers the depth with which Jeremy Bentham James Mill George Grote and John Stuart Mill thought about history as a site of philosophy and politics He argues that the utilitarians contrary to their reputations as ahistorical and even antihistorical thinkers developed complex frameworks in which to learn from and negotiate the past inviting us to rethink the foundations of their ideas as well as their place in and relationship to nineteenth century philosophy and political thought      Norton's Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular ,1851      DANIEL DEFOE

The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Rita Copeland, 2016-01-28 The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers' engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers' own cultural context This first volume and fourth to appear in the series covers the years c 800 1558 and surveys the reception and transformation of classical literary culture in England from the Anglo Saxon period up to the Henrician era Chapters on the classics in the medieval curriculum the trivium and quadrivium medieval libraries and medieval mythography provide context for medieval reception The reception of specific classical authors and traditions is represented in chapters on Virgil Ovid Lucan Statius the matter of Troy Boethius moral philosophy historiography biblical epics English learning in the twelfth century and the role of antiquity in medieval alliterative poetry The medieval section includes coverage of Chaucer Gower and Lydgate while the part of the volume dedicated to the later period explores early English humanism humanist education and libraries in the Henrician era and includes chapters that focus on the classicism of Skelton Douglas Wyatt and Surrey
